Dear Members,
RE: Potential heritage designation 1627 Danforth Avenue

The TTC building at 1627 Danforth Ave is an iconic building in the East Danforth neighbourhood. Completed in 1915 to serve streetcar routes in the East end of Toronto, the brick carhouse is one of the older public buildings in this community. Residents in the area are concerned that the site could be declared surplus and the historic building lost.

That the Toronto and East York Community Council:

1. Request that the Director of Urban Design report on the potential inclusion "listing" of the property at 1627 Danforth Avenue on the City of Toronto's Heritage Register under Part IV of the Ontario Heritage Act.

Sincerely,

Mary-Margaret McMahon
Councillor, Ward 32
