To Whom It May Concern:

Eatable Films, Inc. is hosting an event called Eatable Film Festival on October 4th from 3:00 PM to 11:00 PM and October 5th from 5:00 PM to 10:00 PM at The Royal Cinema at 608 College Street, M6G 1B4.

The event on Sunday, October 4th, 2015 will host the Canadian premiere of the documentary Sherry and the Mystery of Palo Cortado. We will offer two screenings of the film. Prior to each screening, guests will receive a tasting of sherry with Spanish hors d'oeuvres. This is a 19+ event. All servers will be Smart Serve qualified. Each screening is expected to have no more than 250 guests.

The event on Monday, October 5th, 2015, will host one screening of the documentary *Sergio Herman, F**king Perfect*. Prior to the screening, a single drink and number of snacks will be offered to each guest (estimated 250). This is a 19+ event. All servers will be Smart Serve qualified.

The first food and film festival in Toronto, Eatable film festival features immersive screening events that engage Toronto's culinary stars (and upstarts) to create consumable content inspired by the films. Eatable Film Festival aims to combine Toronto's love of food and film by screening food based content and giving guests a taste of what they see on the screen.
