Dear Madam Clerk,

Re: Administrative Inquiry Regarding Toronto Hydro's Hired Consulting Firms

I am writing in response to the Administrative Inquiry submitted by Councillor Gord Perks and Councillor Janet Davis to the City Clerk, dated October 27, 2016. The Administrative Inquiry requests answers to a number of questions related to the nature of the working relationships of two consultancy firms, Edelman Canada and Campaign Research, with Toronto Hydro Corporation.

In response to the request, Anthony Haines, President and CEO, has provided the attached correspondence dated November 4, 2016 advising that Toronto Hydro Corporation will endeavour to provide the requested information to Council in time for its next scheduled meeting on December 13-15, 2016.

Sincerely,

Peter Wallace
City Manager

Dear Peter,

We are in receipt of your correspondence forwarding the administrative inquiry submitted by Councillor Janet Davis and Councillor Gord Perks to the City Clerk, dated October 27, 2016, and acknowledge your request for a response by Thursday November 3, 2016.

While we note that Toronto Hydro is not required to respond to administrative inquiries made under Administrative By-law, Chapter 27-61 of the Municipal Code, we are working towards providing a voluntarily response that we believe will substantially address the Councillors' request for information. However, this information will take time to prepare and, dependent on the commercial sensitivity of the requested information, some of it may be provided confidentially to your office.

We will endeavour to provide the requested information in time for the next council session in December.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
