

Showing the south and east (principal) elevations of the three storey complex known historically as the Capitol Theatre Building (2490 Yonge Street and a portion of 2506 Yonge Street) on the northwest corner of Yonge Street and Castlefield Avenue. (Heritage Preservation Services, 2016)

Showing the entrance to the Capitol Event Theatre. (Heritage Preservation Services, 2016)

The above photographs showing the current view of the auditorium with the paneled ceiling and the pilasters on the side walls (Heritage Preservation Services, September 2016)

Showing the entrance lobby with three sets of doors with the multi-paned inserts and the flat-headed multi-paned transoms (Heritage Preservation Services, September 2016)