The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Alan Brassel on October 27, 2016.

Alan Brassel was a resident of Scarborough-Agincourt with his family for the past 18 years. As member of the Heathwood Ratepayers Association, Alan was a great contributor to improving the quality of life within the Community. Alan played a key role in several projects including the painting of the fence along the Community, the planting of more than 6,000 daffodil bulbs as well as his planting of lilacs in a garden in front of Kennedy Public School. Alan's love and his contributions to the Heathwood Community of Scarborough will be remembered for the many years to come.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Alan Brassel's family.
