The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Audrey Sylvia Tobias on December 1, 2016.

Ms. Tobias was a recipient of the Agnes McPhail Award for her contributions to the community as a peace activist. She was best known for her successful protest of the census form in 2013. A World War II veteran (WRCNS), high school teacher (Central Tech), librarian and contributing founder of Toronto Public Library Workers Union, researcher, technical writer and published author, mentor and life time political activist, she spent her life embodying Christian ideals of love and mission. She had an impact on many lives and will be missed by family, friends and her church community.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Audrey Sylvia Tobias' family.
