

Proposed Site Plan of 628, 634, and 636 Church Street

628 Retain walls during construction, internal reconstruction, porch reassembled

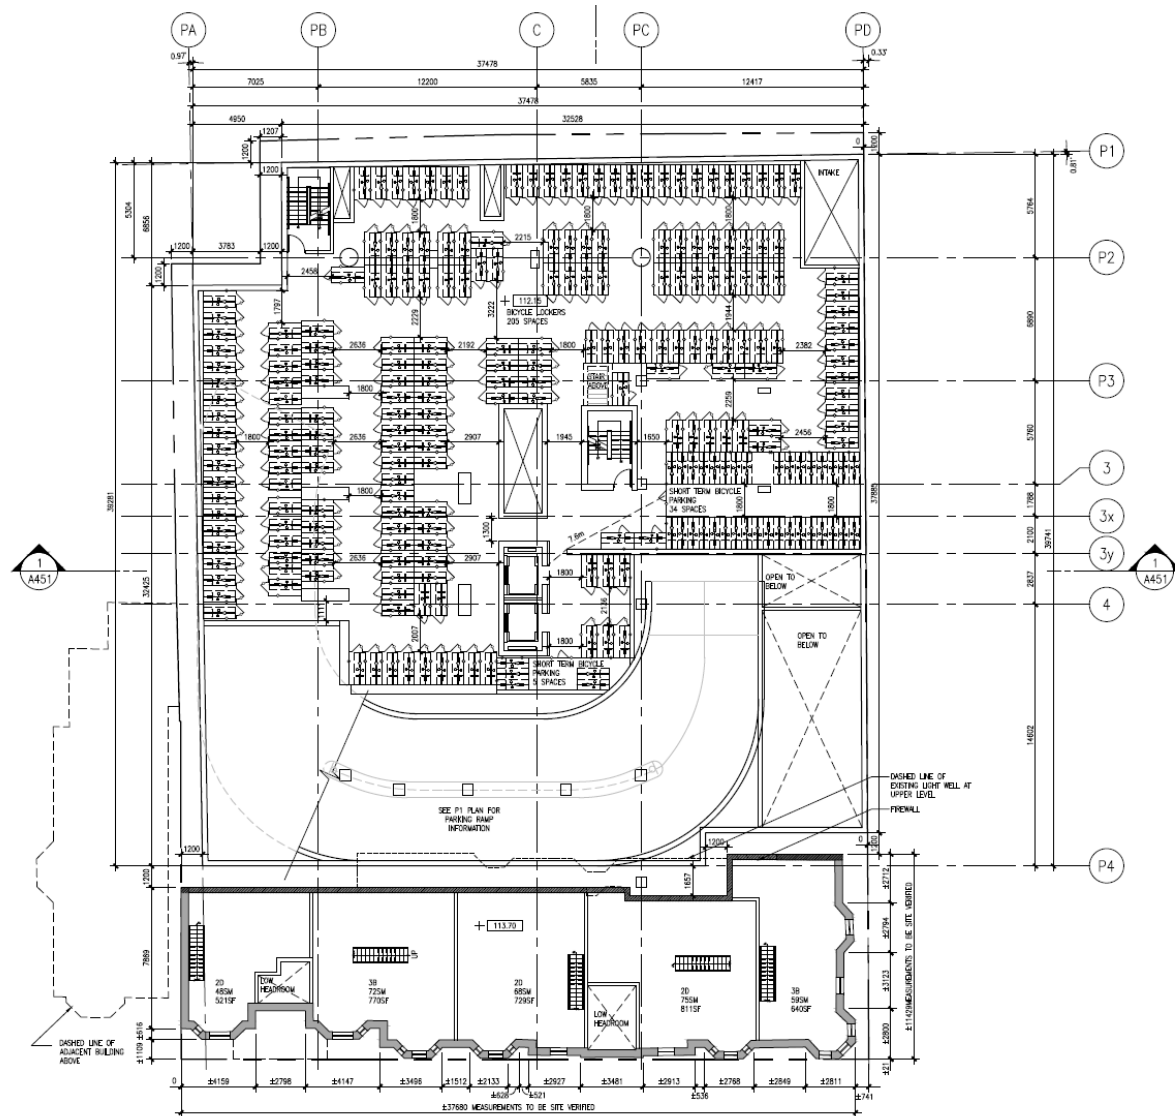

634-636 less tail, retain on site during construction, internal reconstruction, move forward

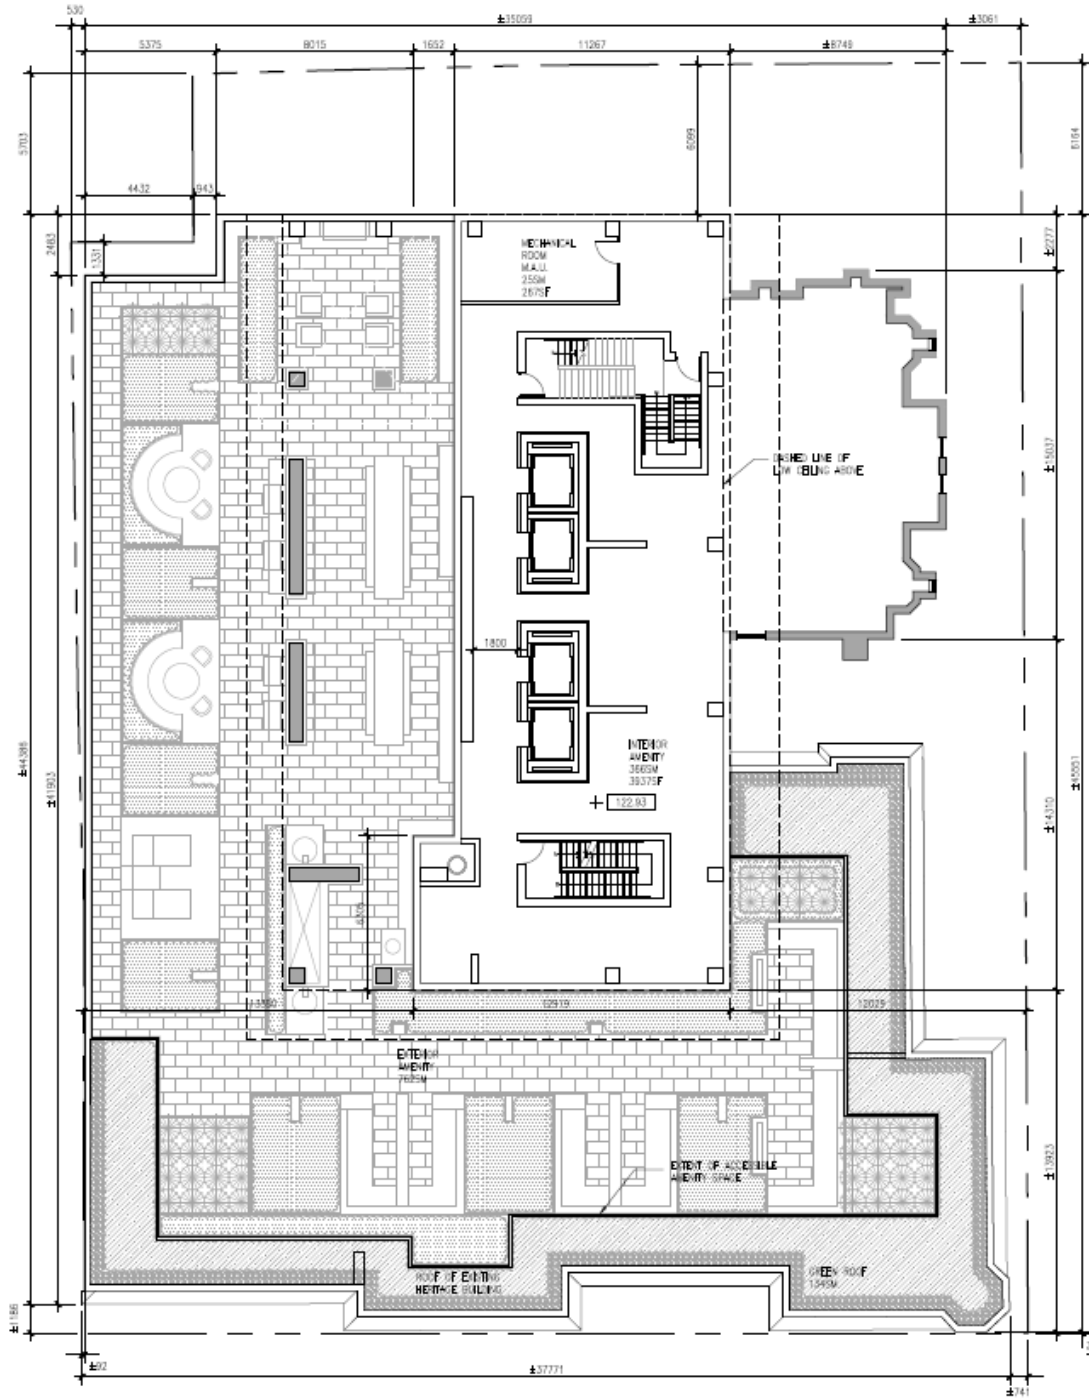

68-70 Charles St. fully preserved, with internal renovations

75. Ground floor plan with preserved heritage buildings indicated. Colours indicate three different approaches to preservation. QAL

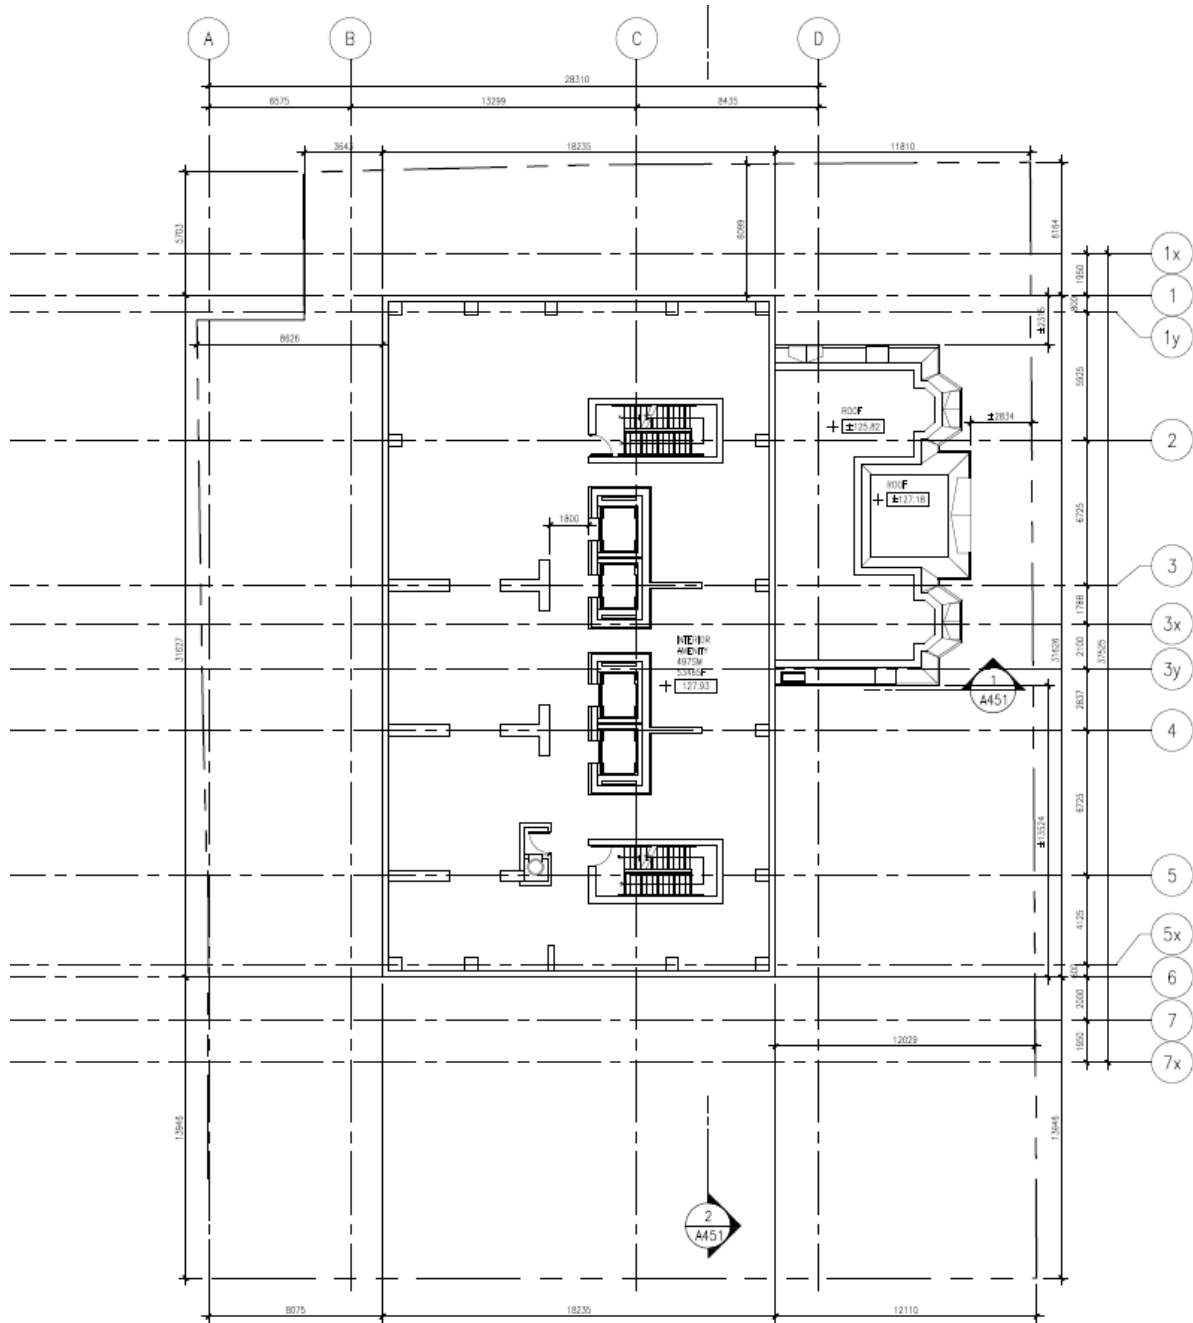

Proposed retention strategy showing the retained portion of the heritage buildings.
Phil Goldsmith Architect

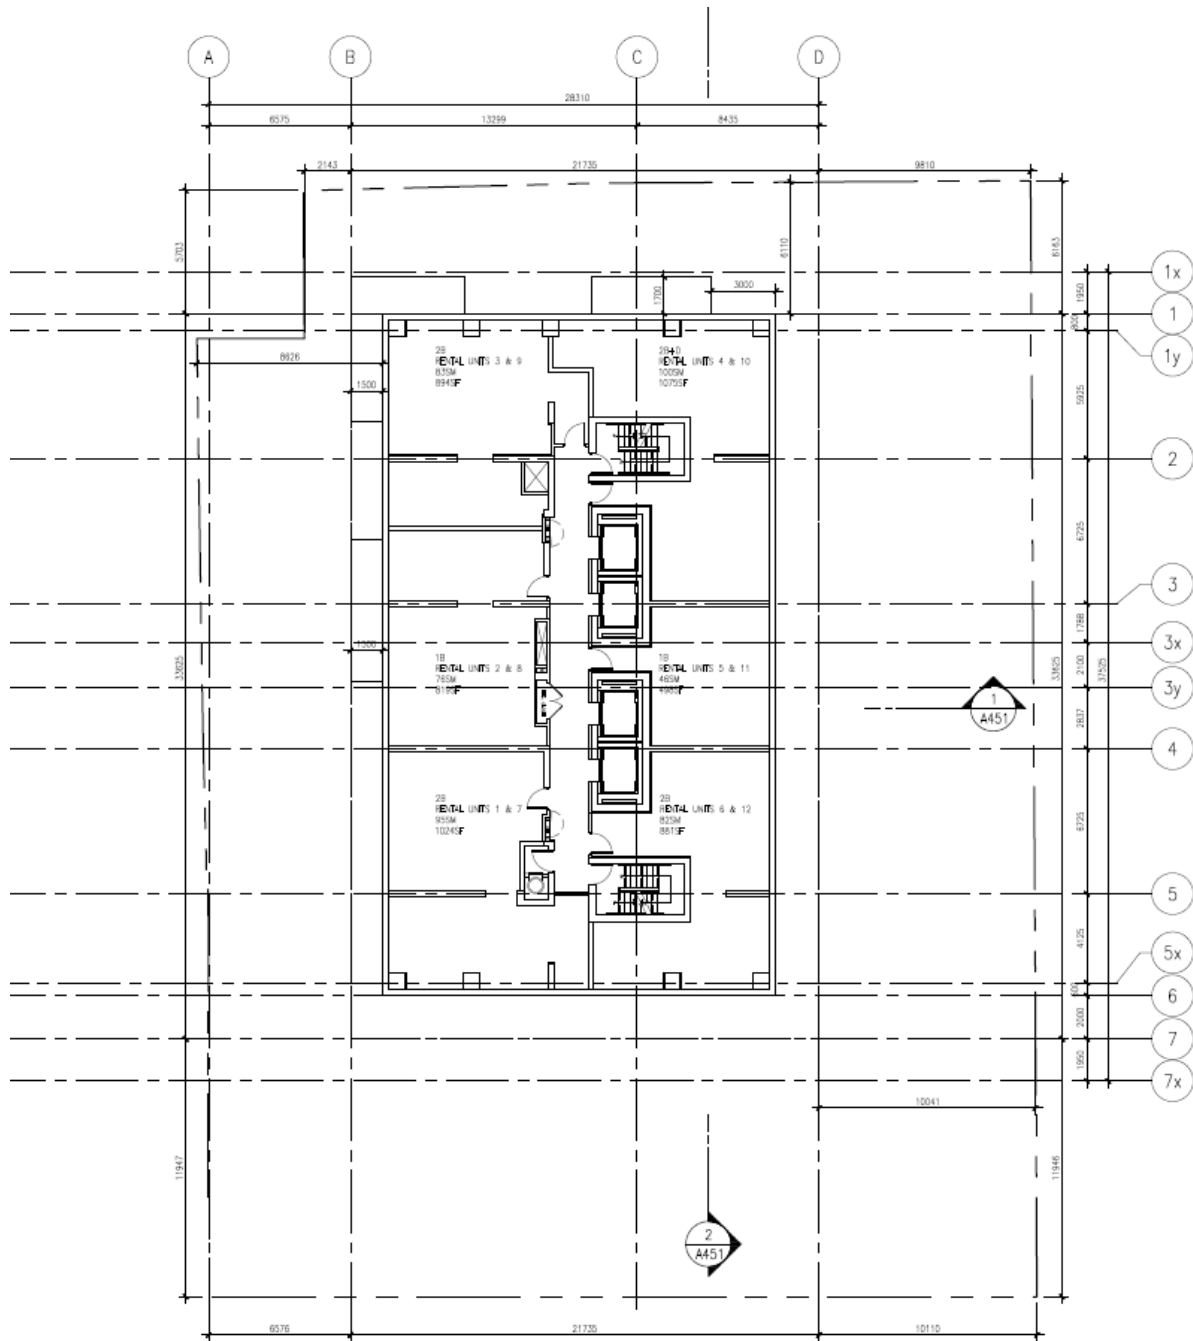

Proposed mezzanine level plan

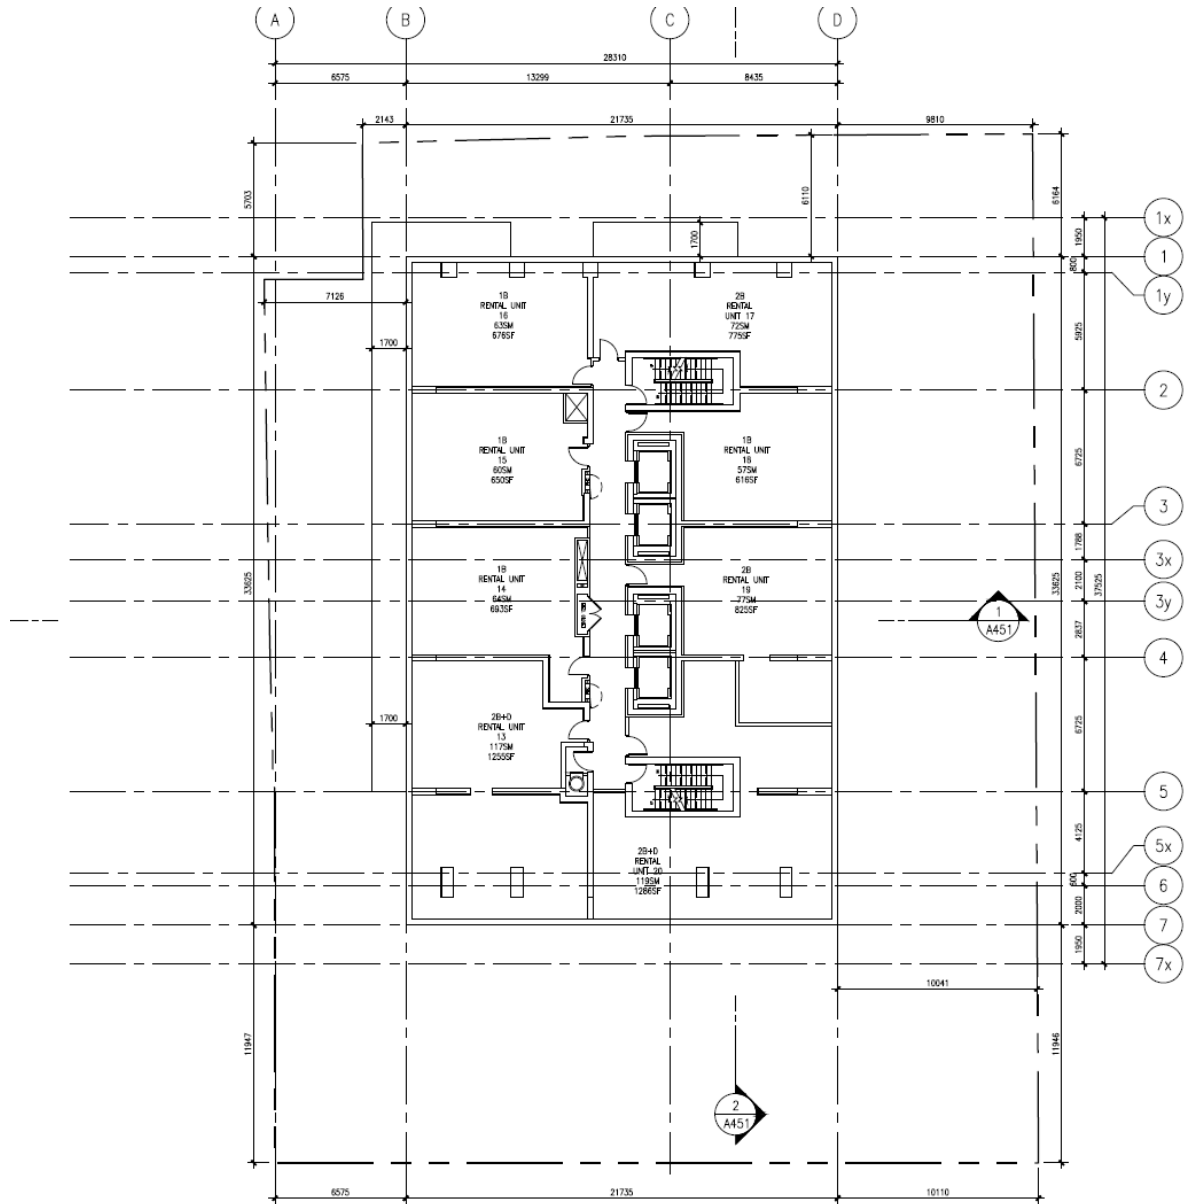

Proposed third floor plan

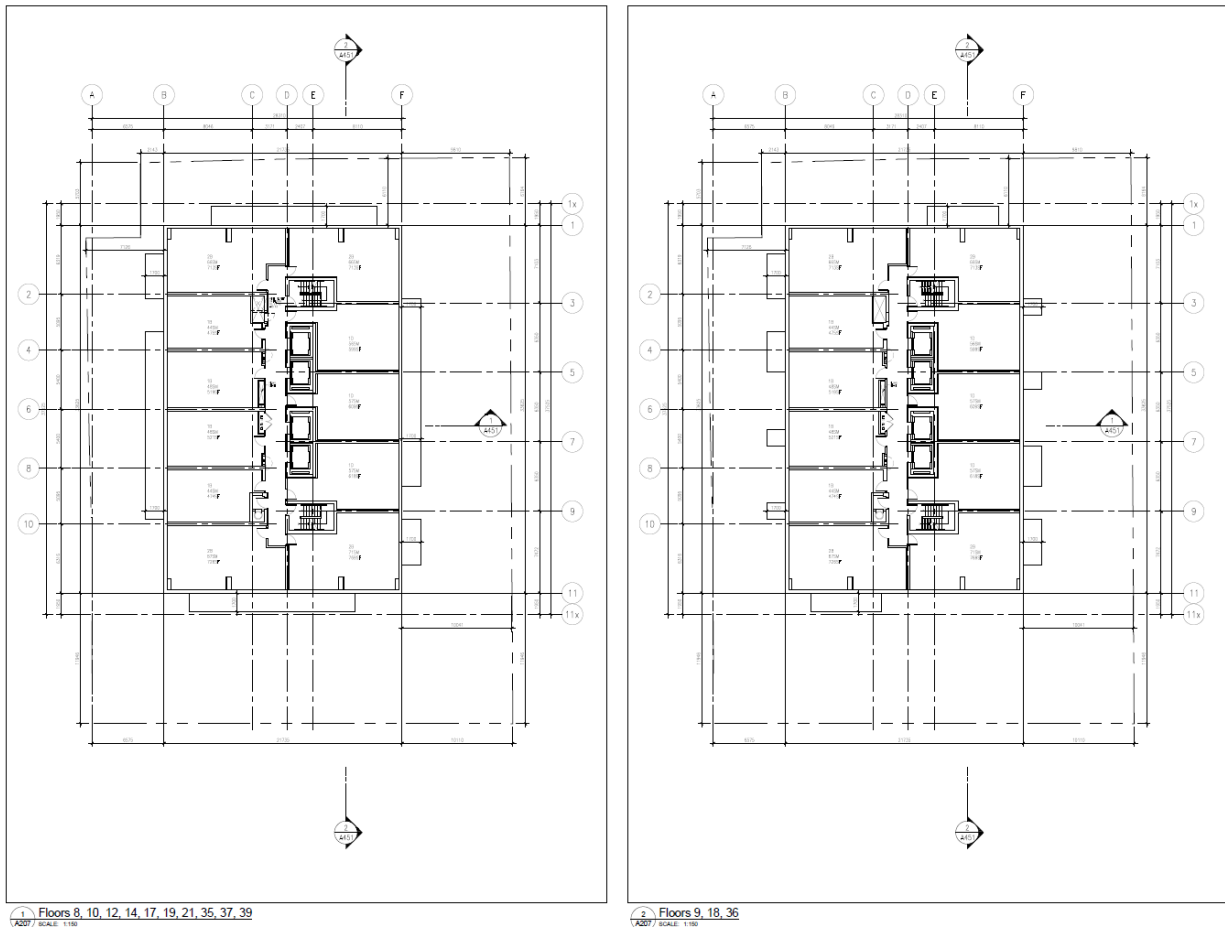

Proposed fourth floor plan

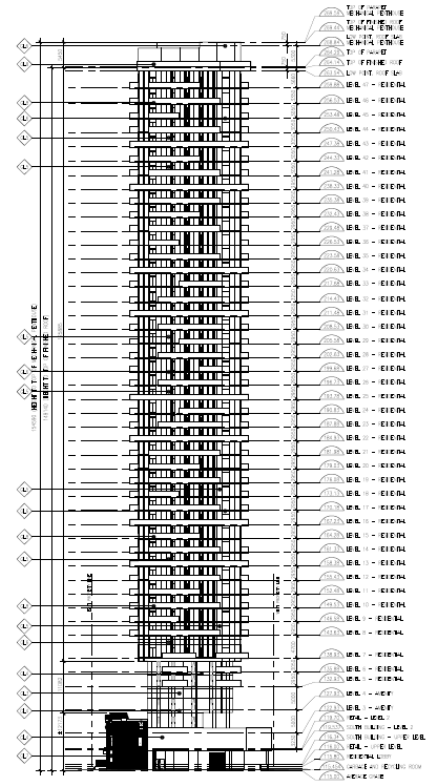

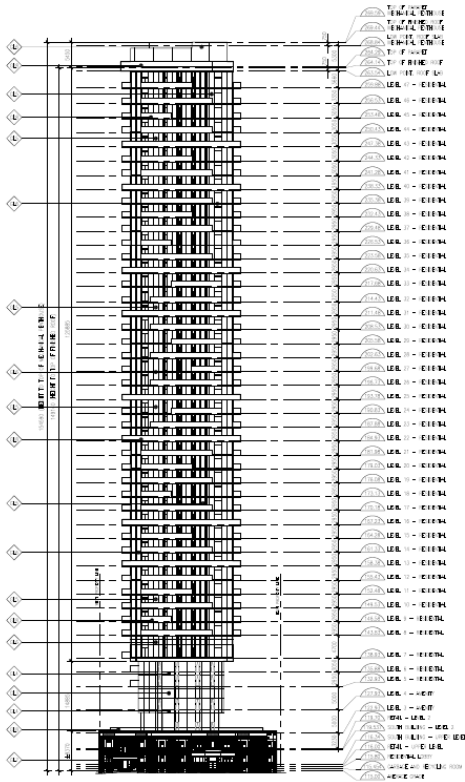

Proposed fifth and sixth floor plan

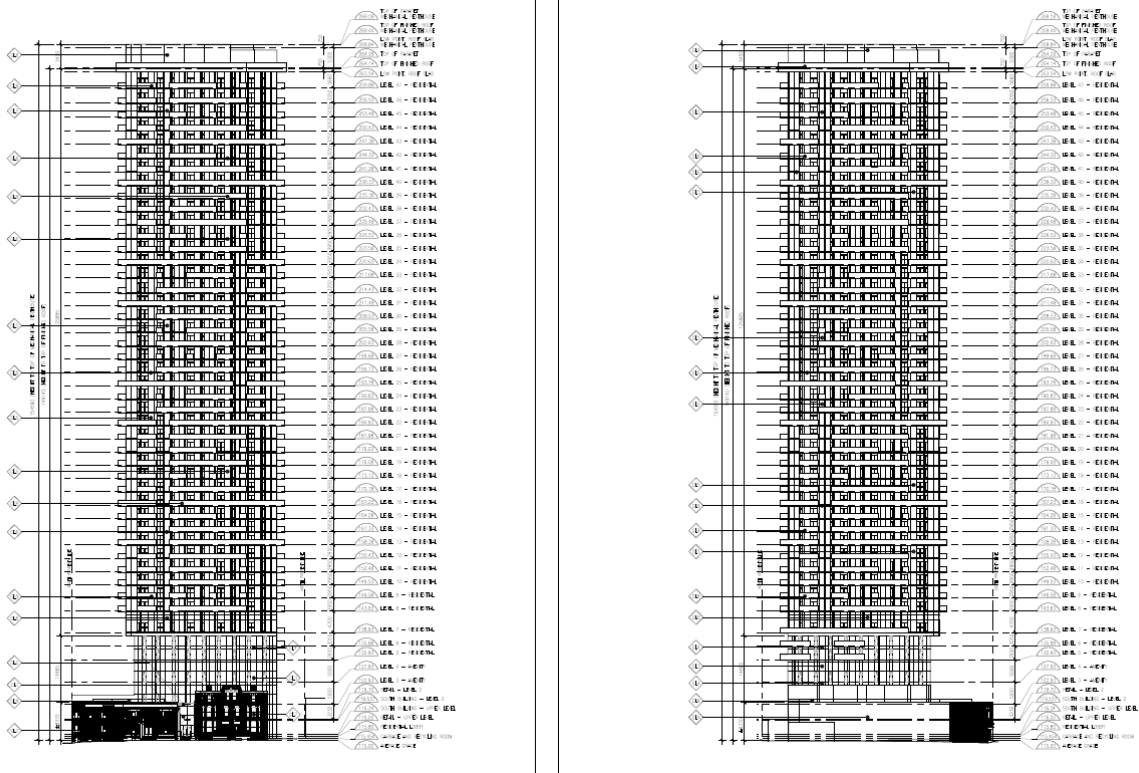

Proposed seventh floor plan

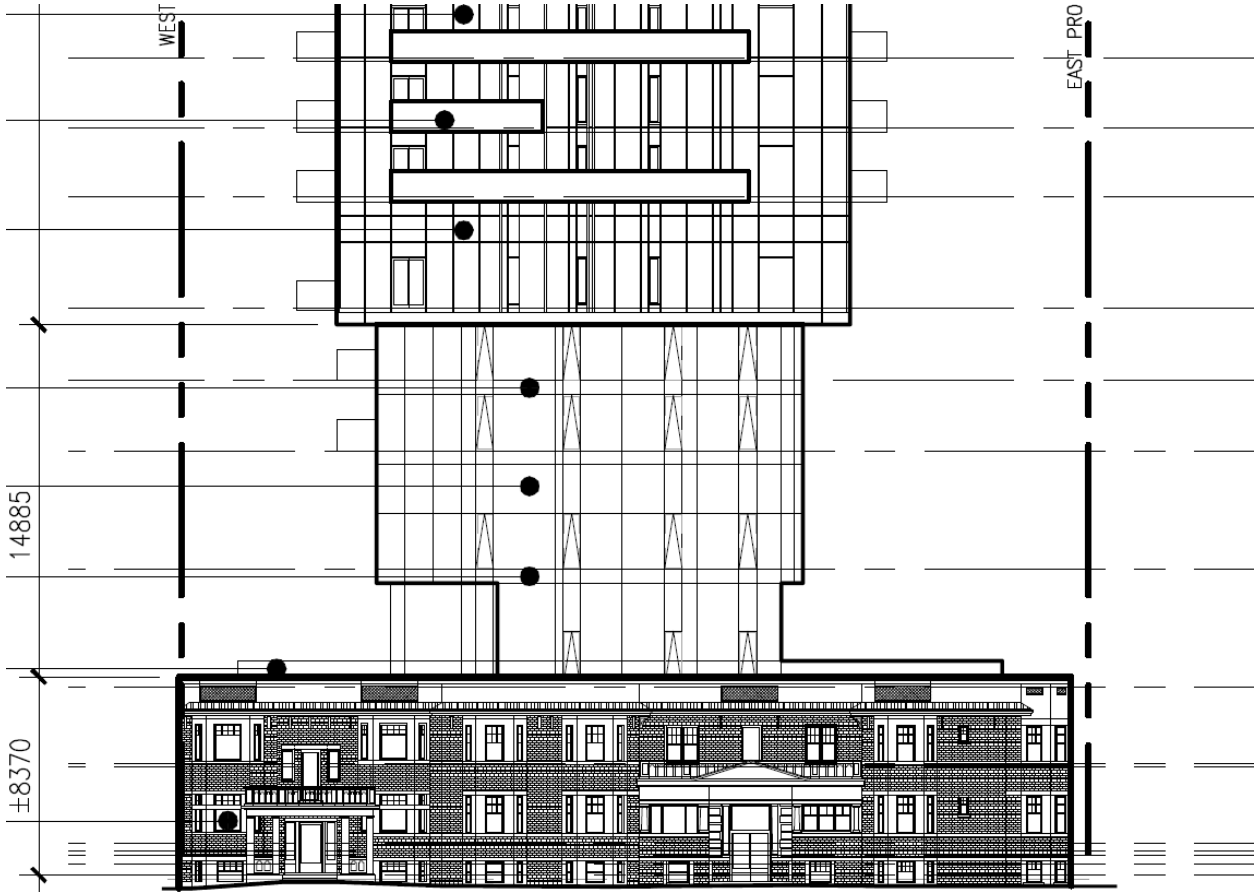

Proposed eighth and ninth floor typical plans

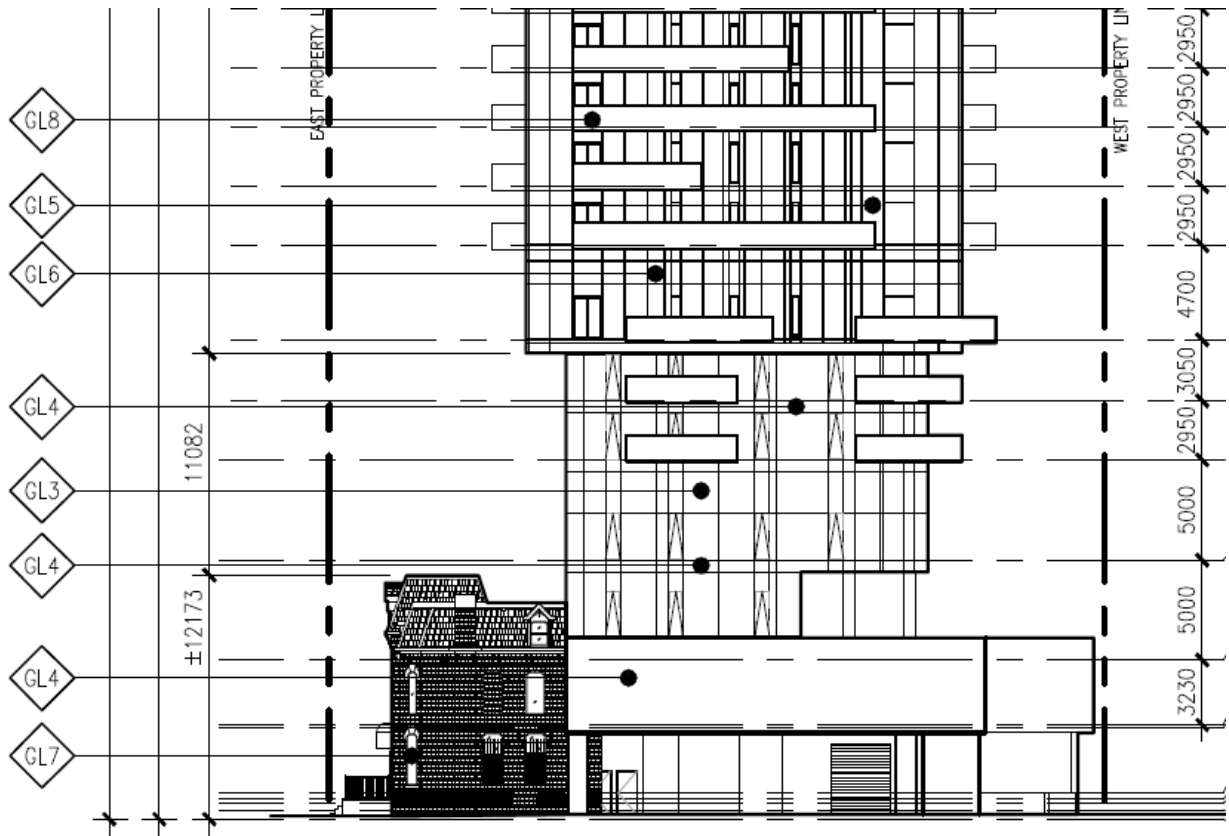

Proposed south and north elevation

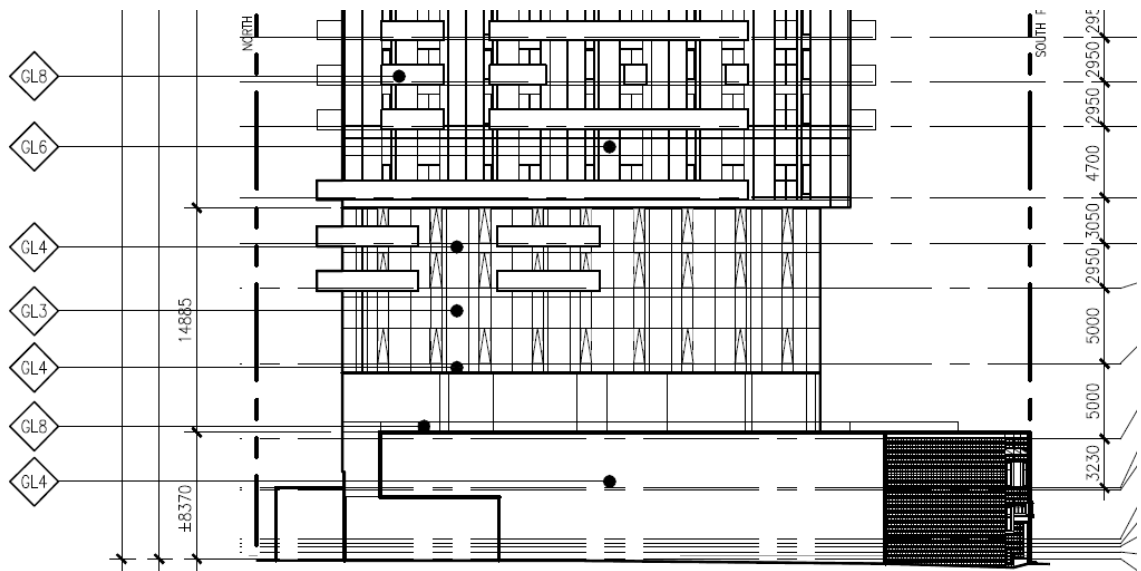

Proposed east and west elevation

Partial enlargement of the proposed south (Charles Street East) elevation

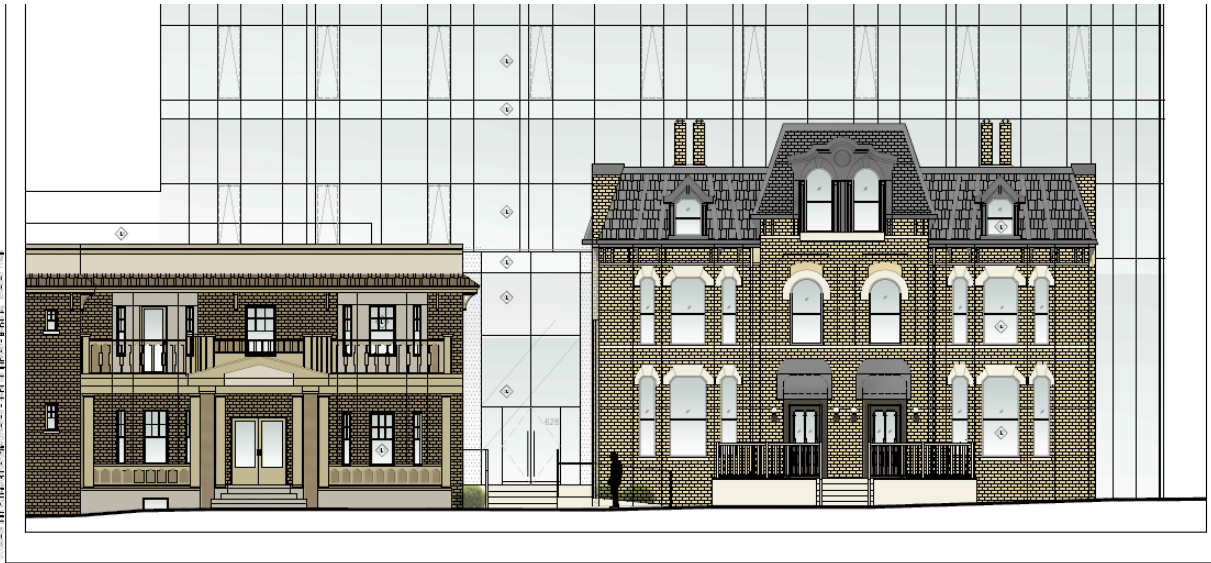

Partial enlargement of the proposed north elevation

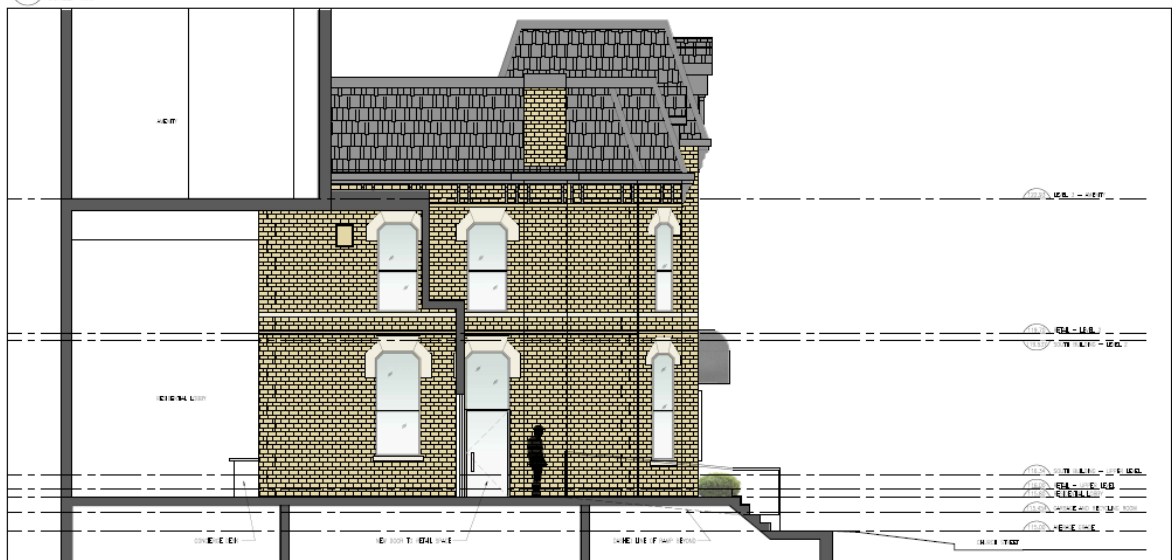

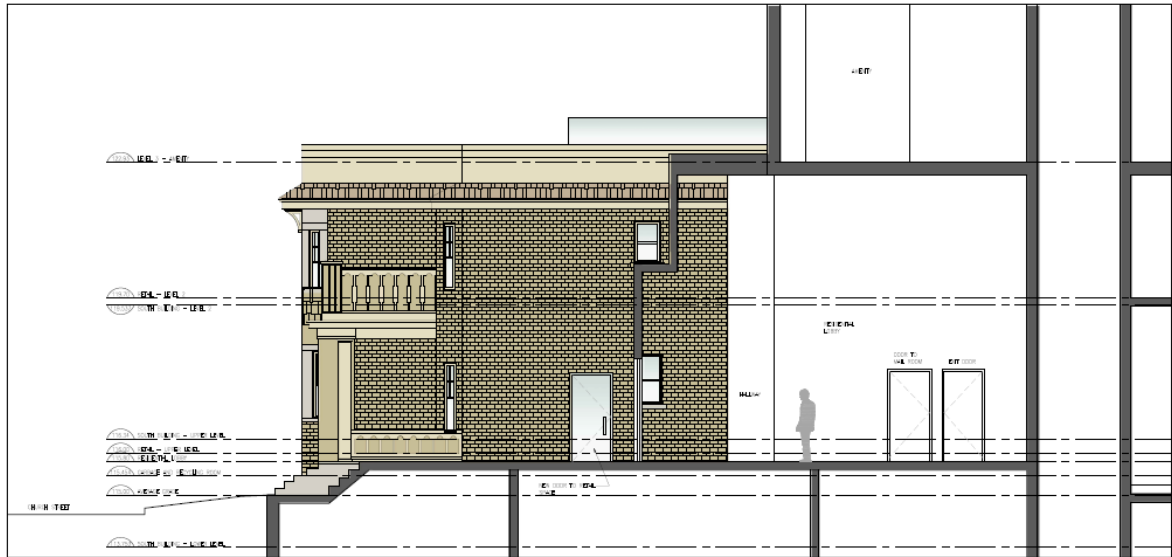

Partial enlargement of the proposed west elevation

Partial enlargement of the proposed East (Church Street) elevation

Partial Church Street Elevation showing the proposed entrance to the new residential tower between the Manhattan Apparent and the Bernard Haldan Houses.

Section showing the proposed primary entrance to the new residential tower between the Manhattan Apparent and the Bernard Haldan Houses.

Rendering of proposed development.
Quadrangle Architects