

Gilead Place, 1936. A typical street of small houses in Cabbagetown. In 1919, the city directory listed simply "Macedonians" or "Foreigners" for some of the people living in these cottages. -City of Toronto Archives-D.P.W. 33-62

165 River Street (Now demolished) in 1937, prior to alterations

165 River Street in 1938, after alterations