Hi Ellen,

I'm writing to you today in the hope that I may be granted a Letter of Non-Objection to accompany my AGCO Application for Extension of Hours for our second year during the Toronto International Film Festival. These events are to be held in conjunction with Common Good Studio, a Toronto-based production company.

The Extension of Hours permit provides a home-base for Common Good Studio to host and network with international celebrities, guests and clients along with their local partners across Toronto's film industry; who, with a very full schedule, will have the flexibility to attend beyond our regular hours of operation.

The event dates are Sept 6th-10th and Sept 13th-16th, 2017.
The location is Bambi's - 1265 Dundas St West.
Our regular hours are 10pm-2am.
The extended hours requested would be 2am-4am.

Please find attached, a letter of support from Jamie Webster, partner and director at Common Good Studio.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to get in touch with me directly at:

To whom it may concern,

This letter is to affirm the support and collaboration from Common Good Studio to Bambi's throughout the duration of the Toronto International Film Festival. The events feature premiere screenings of short films, documentaries and music videos produced by Common Good Studio. From September 6th-9th, and 13th-16th, Bambi's will offer Common Good Studio a venue to host clients, crew and international visitors to the festival, and allow them to discover another side of our native city.

A sample of our screenings include:

An extended edit of "Reminder" by artist The Weeknd produced and directed by Common Good Studio.

"Long Exposure"

A short film produced and directed by Common Good Studio for Dazed & Confused magazine.
