Dear Mayor Tory and Members of Council:

CC32.8: COMMITTEE OF ADJUSTMENT NOTICE PROCEDURES
LETTER TWO – AN ADDENDUM TO LETTER DATED OCTOBER 3, 2017

As noted in Teddington Park Residents Association Inc 's submission dated October 3, 2017 we have concerns with respect to the Toronto Ombudsman's jurisdiction over bodies with judicial requirements under S. 170 of the City of Toronto Act.

Any action that Council may take from receiving the Ombudsman's report ought not to deny anyone their appeal rights which includes seeking Re-Notice for demonstrated failed or defective Notice with respect to Committee of Adjustment decisions and hearings.

TPRA does not support status quo, however the rights of residents and their Associations should be defended, not denied or unilaterally removed. As a start, one must know one's rights in order to know how to exercise them.

In addition, on Council's agenda through the web an incorrect letter from a different group under the link identified for TPRA's submission was uploaded in error. This has since been corrected. TPRA is not associated with this group or the content of that letter for those who may have viewed it.

Respectfully submitted,

Eileen Denny, President
Teddington Park Residents Association Inc.

cc. TPRA Board Secretary
cc. Ms. Susan Opler, Toronto Ombudsman
