

Public Notice

Amendments to City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 918, Parking on Residential Front Yards and Boulevards.

At its meeting in Committee Room 1, 2nd Floor, Toronto City Hall, 100 Queen Street West, Toronto, on June 8, 2017, the Public Works and Infrastructure Committee will consider Item PW22.5, which contains a recommendation which may result in amendments to City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 918, Parking on Residential Front Yards and Boulevards.

It is proposed that the by-law(s) be adopted at the Council meeting to be held on July 5, 2017 or at a subsequent meeting.

The report (May 25, 2017) from the General Manager, Transportation Services, titled "Front Yard Parking Regulations" has the following recommendation:

1) City Council amend City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 918, Parking on Residential Front Yards and Boulevards, to:

a) prohibit the General Manager of Transportation Services from:

i) accepting any new applications for a licence to park on any portion of a boulevard for residential properties located anywhere within the City of Toronto; and

ii) accepting any new front yard parking applications for front yard parking for residential properties located anywhere within the geographical area of the former City of Toronto;

b) remove any appeal for refusals to accept a new application; and

c) grandparent existing parking pads, as described in Appendix 1, for locations where:

i) licences already issued;

ii) licences approved for issuance;

iii) licences issued following the ban recommended in Recommendation 1 where a complete application for that licence has been received prior to the ban coming into force; and

iv) transfers of licences.

If approved by City Council, City of Toronto Municipal Code Chapter 918, Parking on Residential Front Yards and Boulevards will require amendment.
