EVENT: Celebration of Pride

VENUE: Used to be called Slack's. Is now an event space.

DESCRIPTION: I will be creating a fun atmosphere for folks celebrating Pride to come in and enjoy a cold drink, music, comedy shows earlier in evening featuring some well known comedic talent . I will be having prize table to sell tickets to raise money for Toronto Newsgirls Boxing Club.

It's a nice reunion of folks that used to come to this hallowed space when I used to run my restaurant there. I believe the building is destined for demolition for condos so would be great to allow folks in for possibly the last Pride celebration here. The driveway I will setting up with colours of Pride and tables and chairs to stage it as a nice a nice patio so people can come in and relax and enjoy the views of Pride.

I have owned 4 restaurants in Toronto see am very capable of running this event in accordance with AGCO. I have worked with the owners of the building many times.

Church St will be closed from Friday evening to Sunday evening.
