To Whom It May Concern:

We are hosting our 2nd annual NoshFest, a 1-day Jewish food festival at the Artscape Wychwood Barns on October 9, 2017 from 10AM-5PM located 601 Christie Street, Toronto. We are expecting about 700 attendees. The event will celebrate Jewish food and culture by showcasing delicacies unique to Jewish tradition and heritage and bringing together members of Toronto's diverse community.

As this event is a public, ticketed event, we are requesting that NoshFest be deemed by the city clerk as an event of municipal significance so that we may obtain a special occasion permit (SOP) from the LCBO/AGCO. We were considered an event of municipal significance by the city of Toronto in 2016 for the inaugural, NoshFest which took place on November 13, 2016. We have recently received a commitment from Niagara-based Tzafona Cellars, part of Lakeview Wine Co. to join us as a vendor. We are expecting a few other breweries to join us as vendors as well.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Josh Koziembrocki
Chair, NoshFest Planning Committee
