SUMMARY

Diamond Corp. and Tricon Capital Group (collectively, the "Applicant") are the owners of lands municipally known as 5 Scrivener Square, 4-10R Price Street, and 1095-1107 Yonge Street in the City of Toronto (the "Subject Site").

The Applicant initially submitted Official Plan and Zoning By-law Amendment applications to the City in May 2017, proposing to redevelop the Subject Site with two mixed-use buildings of 8-storeys (35 metres, including mechanical penthouse) and 26-storeys (97.3 metres, including mechanical penthouse) (the "Application"). The two new buildings would contain a total of 182 rental dwelling units, 3,085 square metres of non-residential floor area, 164 parking spaces within a 4-level underground parking garage, and 203 bicycle parking spaces. The Application proposed to demolish the existing 4-storey buildings at 8-10 Price Street. The existing buildings at 1095-1107 Yonge Street and 4 Price Street are proposed to remain unaltered.

The Subject Site falls within the boundaries of the South Rosedale Heritage Conservation District designated under Part V of the Ontario Heritage Act by by-law 115-2003 (the "SRHCD"). The properties at 5 Scrivener Square, 8, 10 and 10R Price Street, and 1107 Yonge Street are categorized as "unrated" properties in the SRHCD. The properties at 1095-1103 Yonge Street are categorized as "B" rated properties, meaning that they have been identified as having city-wide significance. The properties at 1095-1103 Yonge Street are also subject to a Heritage Easement Agreement dated September 12, 2002, instrument no. E599178 (the "HEA").

On February 6, 2018, the Applicant appealed the Official Plan and Zoning By-law Amendment applications to the Ontario Municipal Board (the "OMB") (now known as the Local Planning Appeal Tribunal) (the "LPAT") due to City Council's failure to make a decision.

On October 17, 2017, Toronto and East York Community Council considered and adopted the recommendations of a Preliminary Staff Report from Community Planning.

A first LPAT prehearing conference regarding the appeal of this matter is scheduled for October 10, 2018.

The purpose of this report is to request further instructions for the upcoming LPAT hearing.

At its meeting of February 4, 5, and 6, 2003, Toronto City Council adopted the South Rosedale Heritage Conservation District under Part V, Section 42 of the Ontario Heritage Act, enacted by Council on February 7, 2003 under By-law 115-2003. In 1988, the City undertook a two-phased planning study to review the land use planning policies for the area on the east side of Yonge Street between the Canadian Pacific Railway (C.P.R.) tracks to the north and Aylmer Avenue to the south, which includes the Subject Site. In 1995, the OMB approved the Yonge-Summerhill Part II Plan, which includes the Subject Site. City Council later adopted a related development Master Plan for this area in 1997 and a site-specific Zoning By-law 398-2000 in 2000. The site-specific Zoning By-law 398-2000 is available on the City's website at:

In 2005, Woodcliffe Corporation applied for Official Plan and Zoning By-law amendments for 8-10 & 10R Price Street and 1095-1107 Yonge Street to permit a 38-storey residential tower with a 4-storey base building containing residential, retail, and office uses. The proposal included the expansion of the five historic retail stores at 1095-1103 Yonge Street (known as the "Shops of Summerhill"), and the creation of an urban square at the northwest portion of the site, opposite the restored North Toronto Station and existing urban square. The preservation of the Shops of Summerhill was previously secured in a 2002 Heritage Easement Agreement. The proposal was revised to a 26-storey tower, 97 metres in height and a 5-storey base building. City Council refused the application at its meeting on September 25, 26, 27 and 28, 2006. Council's decision refusing the application is available on the City's website at:
