Moved by: Councillor Neethan Shan

Seconded by: Councillor Kristyn Wong-Tam

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Jayanthi Seevaratnam on December 12, 2017.

Jayanthi Seevaratnam was born in Alaveddy, Sri Lanka, and came to Canada in 1990. Jayanthi was married in 1998 and had two children. Jayanthi's daughter is in university studying to become a nurse. Jayanthi's son is in grade 11.

Jayanthi was dedicated to her family, and she contributed to her community in her role as a school lunchroom supervisor, which she did for 10 years.

Jayanthi worked at Alexander Stirling Public School in Scarborough where she was known as a caring and dedicated member of the staff team. Jayanthi treated the children kindly, like they were her own, making sure they ate their lunch on time, and provided supervision for the children during their lunch hour.

Jayanthi will be sorely missed by the school community.

Jayanthi Seevaratnam is survived by her children, both of her parents, and her four siblings who are in Canada.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Jayanthi Seevaratnam's family.
