This location map is for information purposes only and is oriented with North at the top. The exact boundaries of the development are not shown. The arrow marks the south edge of the development site fronting on to Wellesley Street West.
Photograph of 10-16 Wellesley Street West at the north-east corner with St. Nicholas Street showing the principal (south) and side (west) elevations and the properties at 5-7 St. Nicholas Street to the left in the distance (Heritage Preservation Services [HPS], 2019)

Photograph of 10-16 Wellesley Street West showing the principal (south) and side (east) elevations (HPS, 2019)
Photograph of the principal (west) elevations of 7 St. Nicholas Street and to the right, 5 St. Nicholas Street (HPS, 2019)

Photograph of the principal (west) and side (south) elevations of 5 St. Nicholas Street with 7 St. Nicholas Street to the left (HPS, 2019)
Photograph of the principal (east) elevation of 586 Yonge Street (HPS, 2019)
Location plan showing the development site in relation to the Historic Yonge Heritage Conservation District (Goldsmith Borgal and Company Ltd. Architects). Note that the exact boundaries of the development site are not shown.
Site plan of the proposed development.
P1 floor plan of the proposed development.
Ground floor plan of the proposed development.
Second floor plan of the proposed development.
North south section through the row houses illustrating the partial mezzanine and its relationship to the existing window openings.
Third floor plan of the proposed development.
Third floor plan

South elevation of the proposed development showing the row houses integrated into the new building.

West elevation of the proposed development showing the row houses, and 5 and 7 St. Nicholas Street integrated into the new building
Proposed restoration concept for the row houses.
Proposed restoration strategy for 586 Yonge Street
Proposed restoration strategy for the St. Nicholas Street properties.
Plans illustrating the proposed new building's relationship to the 75 degree angular plane as measured from Yonge Street.