Communications similar to the following text:

Dear Mayor and Councillor,

I am writing to ask that you vote this Thursday for improvements to the City's 2019 Budget so that City Council can keep its election promises on poverty reduction.

That means voting to add 550 more child care subsidies and 7,500 recreation program spaces in 2019. It also means requesting a report to improve next year's budget so that you expand the Transit Fair Pass Discount Program to more low-income riders, and pick up the pace on building more supportive and deeply affordable housing and more child care spaces to meet the 2022 targets. This is all outlined in Social Planning Toronto's Report - A City Left Behind.

To do this, you will need to vote for an additional increase to property taxes of only 0.174%, costing the average homeowner only $5.08 more per year. With a homelessness and housing crisis in Toronto, rising transit fares, 11,000 children on the waiting list for an affordable child care space, and a recreation program waiting list of more than 198,000 applications - we need you to keep your promises now more than ever. We can't afford not to.

On March 7, please vote to pick up the pace and keep City Council's promises to reduce poverty and make Toronto more affordable.

Sincerely,

This message has been sent to my local councillor and Mayor John Tory.

To the City Clerk: Please add my comments to the City Council Budget Item EX2.5, 2019 Capital and Operating Budgets. I understand that my comments and the personal information in this email will form part of the public record and that my name will be listed as a correspondent on agendas and minutes of City Council or its committees.
