Dear Sir/Madam:

Re: Campaign Contribution of Judy Mathew and Arun Thomas

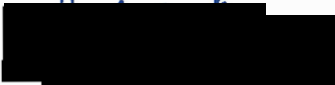

I am in receipt of your letter advising that you have found that I have made a campaign contribution in excess of the allowable limits, and that a meeting is being held on November 18, 2019 to make a decision about this matter.

I am not available to attend the meeting on November 18, 2019, and am therefore providing my submissions in writing as follows:

1. A little over a year ago, a family friend, Reddy, contacted us to inquire into whether my husband and I would be willing to support him by making a contribution to his campaign.
2. My husband and I discussed the issue and agreed to make a contribution.
3. Reddy advised that he would appreciate if we could make a contribution of about $1200.00. I discussed with my husband, and we agreed that a contribution of $1200.00 would be reasonable. We wrote Reddy a cheque for $1240.00 from our joint chequing account. Enclosed please find a copy of the cheque for your reference.
4. I do not recall exactly why we wrote a cheque for $1240.00 as opposed to say $1200.00. We certainly did not consider that we would be exceeding any sort of campaign contribution limit. In addition, the contribution was made jointly by me and my husband, and, in reviewing the rules described by your letter, I still do not believe we overcontributed to Reddy's campaign, as the contribution was made by both me and my husband.
5. It was never my intention, nor my husband's intention, to make a campaign contribution in excess of any limits prescribed under any law or regulation.

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact me using the above-noted information.

Sincerely,

Judy Mathew
