

City of Toronto Act, 2006 Public Notice

Harmonized Bylaw and Fees for Sidewalk Cafés, Parklets and Marketing Displays

Toronto City Council will be considering recommendations to establish a separate municipal code for sidewalk cafés, public parklets, and marketing displays and to adopt amendments to the Toronto Municipal Code, Chapter 27, Council Procedures, respecting delegation, and amendments to Chapter 441, Fees and Charges.

It is proposed that the by-laws be adopted at the Council meeting to be held on March 27, 2019 or at a subsequent meeting. If adopted by City Council, the proposed amendments will:

1. Establish a separate municipal code for sidewalk cafés, public parklets, and marketing displays
2. Amend the delegated authority to Community Councils in Chapter 27, Council Procedures respecting:
  - appeals in relation to the location, design and safety of parklet cafés and public parklets, and appeals in relation to the pedestrian clearway requirements for sidewalk cafés
  - the revocation of a sidewalk café permit, marketing display permit, and public parklet permit and cancellation of permission for the use of any portion of the sidewalk or street at any time and for any reason
  - temporary road closures for the purposes of permitting parklet cafés and public parklets
3. Amend fees in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges to include new fees for sidewalk cafés, public parklets and marketing displays.

The proposed amendments are outlined in the report titled "Harmonized Bylaw and Fees for Sidewalk Cafés, Parklets and Marketing Displays". To view or obtain a copy of the report, visit the City's website at:
