

Kristine Kubota received an email dated February 13th from Jamie Coffin; “We’re really thankful that Brian had the foresight to move our move in from Hall D to Hall C to help conserve the heat in our hall. He’s always great to work with and this just really cemented in the fact that he is awesome! All in all, a great show! Thank you for helping us out along the way!

Richard De Lima sent an email dated March 1st to Chris Alexander of Toronto Caribbean Carnival and Kristine Kubota; “Dear Chris, Kristine, Allow me to extend my heartfelt thanks and my compliments for your persistence and its pay off. [...] Special thanks to you Kristine for your support in presenting the proposal required for making it happen. We look forward to working with you, Alba and the rest of your team in creating a fitting "Carnival Village" home for our 2019 Toronto Caribbean Carnival, a home with the right infrastructure and facilities required to support the exciting series of events planned there. Once again, on behalf of the Board and Management of the FMC, we thank you.”

Stephanie Lander received an email dated March 7th from Debbie van der Beek, Publisher of Ignite & ADRENALIN; “Love your new video! It really show cased all the amazing spaces you have on Exhibition grounds, some which I had forgotten about!”

Exhibition Place is thrilled that UrbanToronto.ca published an article entitled ‘Plans Advance for Beanfield Centre-Hotel X Pedestrian Bridge’ on March 12th;
<http://urbantoronto.ca/news/2019/03/plans-advance-beanfield-centre-hotel-x-pedestrian-bridge>

Jennifer Foster and Laura Purdy received an email dated March 14th from Judy Hebner; “My sincere thank you to you and especially Laura for hosting our Humber group again. The presentation and your content is an excellent fit with our Sustainable Tourism course and we had a great insight to an amazing operation and team at Beanfield.”