16. Consultant's Agreements

- (a) On behalf of the Board, the CEO may enter into a commitment with a consultant for the provision of professional services at a cost not exceeding $150,000.

- (b) The process for the selection of a consultant shall be in accordance with the policies of the Board as approved from time to time.
- (c) The agreement shall be in writing, describe the services to be performed, prescribe the basis and time of payments, establish a maximum fee and be in form approved by the COO in consultation with the Solicitor.

17. Convention, Business and Travel Expenses, etc.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this By-law, the CEO shall not make a commitment of expenditure to reimburse an official for convention, business and travel expenses and expenses related thereto, except in accordance with the policies approved by the Board from time to time.

18. Meterage

Employees who are authorized to use their own vehicles for Zoo purposes shall be allowed to claim meterage at a rate equivalent to the rate specified in the applicable Collective Agreement or Exempt Staff Benefit Program.

19. Agreements

Where the form of commitment is not otherwise specified in this Part, the CEO may make a commitment as provided for in section 10 by means of an agreement in a form approved by the COO in consultation with the Solicitor.

G. CAPITAL PROJECTS

20. Contracts and Tenders

- (a) A formal written contract shall be used to commit to a project with a value exceeding $250,000, excluding therefrom any agreement with an architect, engineer or other consultant retained in connection therewith, unless the Board otherwise directs.
- (b) Unless the contract is to be awarded by the City of Toronto, the following conditions shall apply:
  - (1) The form of tender, general conditions and the kind and amount of security forming part of a contract shall be as approved by the Board from time to time.
  - (2) All invitations to tender shall be advertised at least 10 days before tenders are to be opened unless the Board otherwise directs.

- (3) All tenders shall be opened in public by the COO or such senior member of the Finance staff as the COO may designate.
- (4) The CEO or COO under whose supervision the project will be carried out, shall prepare a report to the Board recommending the awarding of the contract to the tender best meeting the specifications and requirements outlined in the tender call.
- (5) All contracts over $250,000 shall be awarded by the Board.

The COO shall ensure the accuracy of all documentation relating to the production of the payroll, including attendance records.

K. PAYMENTS*27. Chief Operating Officer – Requisition from a Unit

- (a) The COO is authorized to pay all accounts where the cost centre manager:
- (1) certified the account in accordance with Part I,
  - (2) provided evidence of payment due in accordance with Part J, and
  - (3) delivered all documents in accordance with Part H.

- (4) before payment is released, the COO shall ensure the account is recorded in the corporate accounts and that funds sufficient to pay the account are available in the appropriation or capital account as certified by the cost centre manager.

28. Chief Operating Officer's Authority

Notwithstanding any other provision in this By-law, the COO is authorized to pay the following accounts, provided that funds are available in the appropriation or capital account for that purpose:

- (a) subject to section 27,
  - (1) all salaries, wages, and benefits due to any person in the employ of the Zoo, and
  - (2) all retiring allowances and the mandatory sick pay grants due to any person previously in the employ of the Zoo;
- (b) all accounts for telephones, postage and utilities supplied to the Zoo;
- (c) all accounts for fees and levies payable to the federal, provincial or other municipal government, or to any agency, board or commission thereof;
- (d) all overdrafts, including foreign exchange; and
- (e) all accounts relating to employee and employer pension contributions in respect of the salaries and wages to those persons who are paid by or employed by the Zoo and which are payable to the trustees of any duly authorized registered pension plan on behalf of the respective employees.

L. SPECIAL POWERS

29. Successive Agreements

Where goods and/or services designated by the CEO as essential to the ongoing operations of the Zoo are provided under agreements renewed not more frequently than annually, the COO is authorized to pay accounts for such goods and/or services under the same authority, at the same rates and on the same basis as the last previously executed agreement from the date of the expiry of such agreement until the date of its renewal or replacement, provided that all provisions of the By-law, except as herein provided, shall continue to apply.

30. Emergencies

Notwithstanding any other provision of this By-law, where in the opinion of the CEO an emergency exists, the CEO is authorized to take such immediate steps as may be considered necessary, acting reasonably, to deal with the emergency and the CEO shall if the funds to be committed exceed $250,000:

- (a) immediately notify the Chair of the Board of the proposed course of action, and
- (b) report action taken and request concurrence of the Board or appropriate committee at its meeting immediately following such action.

M. OVER-EXPENDITURES

31. Overrun on Amount Specifically Approved

Where the cost of goods or services provided, pursuant to a report of the Board in accordance with section 8 will exceed the amount approved by the Board, plus any additional amount permitted under subsection 10 (c), the CEO shall report this fact to the Board as soon as possible, acting reasonably, together with a detailed explanation of the reasons therefore and recommendations on an appropriate course of action.

32. Overrun on Appropriation

Where expenditures will exceed the appropriation or capital account therefore, the CEO shall report this fact to the Board or Committee as soon as possible, acting reasonably, together with a detailed explanation of the reasons therefore and recommendations on an appropriate course of action.

N. WRITE-OFFS

33. Authority for Write-Offs

34. Chattels

- (a) Any materials or equipment managed by the Zoo, which are surplus to Zoo requirements, shall be disposed of by having materials and equipment declared by the CEO to be surplus to the requirements of the Zoo. Surplus property shall be disposed of at the discretion of the COO:
  - (1) by public auction or internet auction, or
  - (2) by a call for competitive bids where the Purchasing & Supply Supervisor and the COO are of the opinion that the highest competitive bid is a fair or favourable price, and the bid price by cash, certified cheque or credit note, or by any combination thereof, is received at the time of disposal.

(3) by way of trade-in at a fair value in connection with the acquisition of other material or equipment, or

(4) as the Board may otherwise direct.

(b) The COO shall report to the Board annually on all disposal activity, including sales, expenses and net amounts realized from the disposal of surplus property pursuant to subsection (a).

(c) For the purpose of this section, “property” means any property that is not real property.

P. DEVELOPMENT & OTHER SOURCES OF REVENUES

35. Donations

Net donations received by the Board shall be transferred to a Foundation designated by the Board from time to time and shall be managed in accordance with the policies adopted by the Board from time to time.

Q. ADMINISTRATION

36. Designation

(a) The CEO shall formulate and maintain a current schedule specifying the delegation of financial signing authority within the Toronto Zoo including commitment and payment authorities, and the authority levels for each level of management within the Zoo.

(b) The schedule shall be signed by the CEO and a copy of the schedule shall be forwarded to the Committee for information.

37. Controls

The Auditor of the Board shall be the Auditor appointed by Council as required by the City of Toronto Act. The Auditor shall carry out whatever tests and inquiries are appropriate to ensure that the Zoo maintains satisfactory internal control practices, and that the terms of this By-law are duly carried out.

38. Banking Agreements

The banking business of the Board shall be transacted with such bank or trust company carrying on a banking business as the Board may designate, appoint or authorize from time to time by resolution, and all such banking business shall be transacted on the Board's behalf by such one or more officers of other persons as the Board may designate, direct or authorize from time to time by resolution and to the extent therein provided.

39. Financial Reporting

- (a) The CEO shall report on attendance and revenues to the Board on a monthly basis;
- (b) The CEO shall report on the operating budget variances at the summary level to the Board on no less than a tri-annual basis;
- (c) The CEO shall report on the progress of all projects in the approved capital program on no less than a semi-annual basis.

40. Repeal

By-law No. 1-97, a By-law "To govern the financial authorities of the Board of Management and its officers", and all amendments thereto are hereby repealed.

41. Effective Date

This By-law shall come into force on the 25th day of November, 2010.

ENACTED by the Board of Management of the Toronto Zoo on the 25th day of November, 2010.
