Communications similar to the following text:

I am writing to express my support for increasing funding to the Tenants' Defence Fund in the 2019 budget. Toronto's rental market is spiralling out of control. Higher rents have created incentives for bad landlords to get rid of good tenants so they can charge more for the same apartment.

The Fund helps renters fight back against landlords through:

- Providing information to tenants facing illegal evictions
- Organizing tenants to fight back against unfair rent increases
- Informing renters how to exercise their right to a safe, clean, and healthy home

Your vote to support tenants is important to me.

Sincerely,

CC: City Council Secretariat
