COMMENTS

There are currently nine positions under consideration

One position is a result of a vacancy due to the resignation of Sheryl Beckford on March 25, 2019. Sheryl was appointed to the Toronto and East York Panel.

The other eight positions are up for appointment due to the terms of the current members ending on November 30, 2018. They serve until their successors are appointed.

The nine members will be appointed to the following panels:

- Etobicoke York panel - 2 public members
- North York panel - 2 public members
- Scarborough panel - 2 public members
- Toronto and East York panel - 3 public members

Applicants will be asked to indicate their panel preferences at the interview.

Term of office

The public members will serve a term of office ending May 15, 2023, continuing to serve until successors are appointed.

Tribunal members receive remuneration

Public members, including the chair receive full-day per diem of $460 and half-day remuneration (3.5 hours or less) of $275 for hearings, business meetings and training sessions.

Each public member who is not a chair of a tribunal or tribunal panel will receive a stipend of $1,500 per year, pro-rated on an annual basis from the time of appointment.

The chair will receive an annual stipend of $2,500, pro-rated on an annual basis from the time of appointment.

Tribunal members must meet certain qualifications

In addition to the general eligibility requirements set out in the Public Appointments Policy, members are to:

- bring an understanding of the diverse neighbourhoods and communities across the city
- have a concern for the health and safety of City residents
- have an understanding of the Building Code Act; Municipal Code Chapter 629, Property Standards; building practices and tribunal processes
- have a clear understanding of the role of the committee
- not act as an agent for any appellant before the Property Standards Committee
- if possible, have previous experience as a member of a decision-making body
- be able to read and understand building plans, surveys and reports

Former Council members who served in the immediately preceding term of Council are ineligible for appointment as public members.

We have consulted with Municipal Licensing & Standards staff

Public Appointments Secretariat staff consulted with Municipal Licensing & Standards staff in January 2019 to discuss committee qualifications and the appointment process. In addition to the Council approved qualifications, staff identified that an understanding of building and construction standards, property management, landscaping and design would be beneficial.

Public release of names of recommended candidates

The name of the recommended candidates will be publicly reported once the Nominating Panel – Property Standards Committee forwards its recommendations to City Council.
