Recommended Candidates Biographies for the Larry Grossman Forest Hill Memorial Arena Board

Neil Greenbaum

Neil Greenbaum has been a successful executive in the Canadian Wealth Management industry for the past 25 years. He is currently the Head of Advisor Solutions at Nest Wealth, a fintech company that helps financial advisors transition their business to a low cost digital wealth platform. Neil is a strategic advisor and coach who helps his clients see through the clutter and re-energize their businesses. He has a deep passion for serving his community and a love of the game of hockey.

Jaimie Grossman

Jaimie is the co-founder and Director of the Larry Grossman Foundation for Kids. He also sits on the boards of Kensington Health Centre, Kensington Foundation and the Kensington Hospice. Jaimie focuses his time on consulting and investing in the tech and real estate sectors. He also spends a good deal of his time with his three young children, driving to hockey rinks, baseball fields and dance studios. Jaimie holds an MBA and certificate in American Foreign Policy.

Adam Nathanson

Adam is a lawyer practicing civil litigation. As a Forest Hill native, he believes that the arena serves as a hub for athletic development and recreational enjoyment within the community. Prior to attending law school, Adam finished first in his graduating class at the University of Western Ontario. While at law school, Adam volunteered within his community, won numerous course prizes, and has since published various articles in the legal field.
