Re: Stopping Prohibition on Bethesda Court

Dear Chair and Colleagues,

Bethesda Court is a small cul-de-sac located in close proximity to Rippleton Public School. During pick up and drop off hours, the residents of Bethesda Court have indicated that their street is often occupied by 14-16 vehicles at a time, which results in a significant amount of congestion.

These vehicles often block driveways, hinder garbage pick-up, and prevent snow removal on Bethesda Court.

All six of the households on Bethesda Court have signed a petition supporting stopping prohibitions on their street.

Transportation staff have no objections to the proposed stopping prohibitions.

Recommendation:

That North York Community Council:

1. Prohibit stopping from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. and 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday, on both sides of Bethesda Court, between Rippleton Road and the west end of Bethesda Court.

Warm regards,

Jaye Robinson
