2019-01-03: Reports

1.3.1 Chair's Report:

- PF noted that there have been two preservation board meetings since we last met.
- PF reported that a group started meeting called Toronto Heritage Matters. PF attended a meeting and gave them an idea of how heritage works in the city. PF told them about opportunity to join the Panel.
- PF reported that he joined Gary Miedema and Anna Flood of HPS at King Parliament Study meeting. Good example of how you do a community survey.
- PF distributed hard copies of State of Heritage Report 2019.
- PF reported that call for new panel members will likely go out in March. When call goes out, we should promote it to every community.

1.3.2 Presentation

- Presentation from Gary Miedema and Anna Flood, HPS, on City-Wide Heritage Survey Feasibility Study. April 30 will be presenting to TPB. Have done a sector scan of various cities/jurisdictions. Need a data management system and looking at options for that. Looking to evaluate properties that are 40 years or older. Have to intersect with the HCDs as well (can inform HCDs with baseline information).

1.3.3. Treasurer's Report/Midburn Avenue:

- AM reported that met with Councillor Brad Bradford regarding Midburn Avenue and he expressed support.

1.3.4 Secretary's Report:

- SM moved to approve dates for TEYCPP 2019 meetings. Carried.

Other Business:

- AM reported that the Danforth Planning Study is being appealed to the OMB.
- PF reported that the Junction Historical Society want to meet with the panel. PF will invite them to the next meeting.
- PB reported that the Cosburn United Church is being sold. A couple of councilors are looking to see if they can save it.

Meeting adjourned at 9:23 p.m.
