

CONDOLENCE MOTION

Moved by: Deputy Mayor Denzil Minnan-Wong

Seconded by: Mayor John Tory

City Council is deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Thomas G. MacMillan on October 15, 2019, in his 73rd year.

Described as a marketing genius, larger than life, genuine, hard worker, mentor, creative, having a wonderful sense of humour, and being an enthusiastic but underwhelming golfer, Tom made a big impact in everything he did.

His career included roles in Abitibi Paper Company, Uniroyal, Participaction, Office of the Treasurer of Ontario, Sun Media, and Advance Planning and Communications. Tom served on the Boards of CAMH, Ontario Place, and The Albany Club, and had an active life in Federal and Provincial politics.

Tom was a husband, father of three, and a grandfather of five. He is remembered with fondness and admiration, and will be missed by his family, friends, and colleagues.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Thomas G. MacMillan's family.

October 30, 2019