Recommended Candidates Biographies for the McCormick Playground Arena Board

Heather Cunningham

As a lifelong resident of Toronto, I am very proud of our city and would like to help to keep it inclusive and to make it an even greater place to live. I am the proud mother of two adult boys and the loving grandmother of 7. Although I attended Toronto Teachers' College my entire has been spent in the Administrative field in various organizations. I have worked with my most recent employer for 19 years in progressively responsible positions, and continue to grow in my position.

Monica Reddon

Monica brings diverse and unique experience to the McCormick Playground Arena Board, having lived and been involved in a number of communities across Canada as well as abroad through an international work assignment. She is a structured problem solver who relies on data and fact-based content to lead teams to decisive and optimum conclusions. McCormick is a big part of the community where she and her family now reside and intend to remain actively involved for the extended future.

Paul Romain

I have a financial background and have worked on Bay Street since I graduated from University. I have held various positions related to finance and specifically trading. I have now worked as a financial regulator for the past six years. I have played hockey my entire life and would like to be part of a community where I have played for the last 20 plus years.

Luis Silva

Luis Silva is a government relations specialist with two decades of experience. He was a school trustee for the Toronto Catholic school board. Mr. Silva has served on the McCormick Playground Arena board of management and is knowledgeable in the City of Toronto Ice Allocation Policy.

Thomas Timmins

Thomas J. Timmins is a senior corporate lawyer in Gowling WLG's Toronto office. He is widely recognized as a leading lawyer in energy, project development, infrastructure and commercial law and has led several of the firm's most significant power and infrastructure sector transactions. He lives in Parkdale with his family and has been a proud supporter of McCormick since time immemorial.
