Recommended Candidate Biography for the Ted Reeve Community Arena Board

Johanna Carlo

Johanna sought appointment to the Arena Board to support, develop and implement strategies that engage the East Toronto community in a healthy active lifestyle. During her former appointment in the Beach Village BIA, she served as Chair of the Streetscape Committee. The Committee was successful in improving the public realm significantly through its projects and development of a Masterplan. She has volunteered in youth sport for over 20 years, specifically minor hockey with the GTHL.

Adrienne Johnstone

Adrienne Johnstone joined the Ted Reeve Community Arena (TRCA) Board in order to continue her contributions to public service. Before joining the private sector in 2018, Adrienne served as a member of the Toronto Police Service and OPP for more than 25 years. She sees the TRCA as similar to that in many small towns - the arena as the heart of a positive, inclusive community. She has served as a volunteer in many local youth sports associations such as Beaches Lacrosse, East York Soccer and Ted Reeve Hockey.

Brian Teefy

Brian has been an East York resident for the last 12 years. He has a wife and two young children. Brian has participated in numerous volunteer and community initiatives throughout his life, including coaching and umpiring minor baseball. Brian stays active by playing hockey at the Ted Reeve Community Arena, skating at East York's many outdoor rinks, playing volleyball and baseball in the community and cycling.

Ken Volden

Ken Volden is a long-time resident of the Beaches community. He has been involved in coaching lacrosse as well as girls and boys hockey. Ten of those years coaching were at Ted Reeve Arena with the AA 2000 GTHL team. He is Vice President and Executive Producer at TSN (The Sports Network) responsible for studio production, news, digital and social media.
