Re: Art Exhibition -"Manfried the Man" book launch

To Whom It May Concern:

Liberty Arts Gallery and Shop (25 Atlantic Avenue, Toronto) is hosting a comic book launch the evening of Thursday May 9, 2019 from 6:30 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. I am writing to request a Letter of Municipal Significance from the Toronto and East York Community Council so that I may apply to receive a Special Occasion Permit for a Public Event.

"Manfried Saves the Day" is the second book in the series by Caitlin Major and illustrator Kelly Bastow published by Quirkbooks. The popular web comic has garnered fans worldwide and we are honored to play host to them. The exhibition includes framed pieces of original artwork and the book. There will be a signing table and a reading from the author night-of. The launch party will be an opportunity for friends, family and the Toronto arts and comic community to celebrate the new installment. It will take place indoors in our enclosed gallery. If a permit is issued, beer and wine will be sold to cover the cost of the event.

Liberty Arts Gallery takes pride in exhibiting and promoting the work of Toronto artists, from emerging to established. The space mounts high-quality exhibitions monthly. All exhibitions are free and open to the public, contributing to the Liberty Village arts scene (where we are located) and beyond. What's more, our gallery also sells a variety of goods made by local vendors, thus supporting the work of Toronto artists, illustrators and craftspeople.

Thank you for your consideration. Please contact me if you have any questions.

Kind regards,
