Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre Inc. officials have informed the City of Toronto that the Board, via electronic motion on March 13, 2020, approved the “Audited Financial Statements for Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre Inc. for year ended December 31, 2019”, forming Attachment 3 to this report. Under the OBCA and provisions of the Unanimous Shareholders' Agreement, the Shareholders must receive the annual Audited Financial Statements at the Annual Meeting of the Shareholders.

The Audited Financial Statements are presented for the fiscal year 2019. The Auditors have expressed an unqualified opinion on these statements. When comparing the actual results to the “cash-basis” budget, there is one technical difference. The Legacy Fund revenues are technically treated as Share Capital contributions, even though they are revenues for business purposes. There was $4.304 million contributed for the year 2019, which was classified as Share Capital issued. The Statement of Operations (page 4 of 12) shows an Operating Deficit of ($474,350), and lower down shows Capital Stock issued in the amount of $4,304,460. The result for the year 2019 is a $3.3 million cash surplus, which increased the accumulated surplus at the end of the year from $15,789,544 to $19,094,370.

7. 2019 Operating Financial Results – “cash-basis”

The Operating Financial Statements for 2019 show an annual surplus of $139,667 after an adjustment for a change in accounting policy where personal training will be recognized as it is used as opposed to when it is purchased. The difference between these results and the audited statements results above is the treatment of the Legacy Funds of $4,304,460, which are shown as revenue, and contributions of $3,940,929 to the Capital Reserve Fund, which is treated as an expense. Amortization expenses are captured in the Capital Reserve Fund.

8. 2020 Budget

Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre Inc. officials have informed the City of Toronto that the Board, at its meeting on September 23, 2019, approved the 2020 Operating Budget, and at the following meeting on December 19, 2019, approved the 2020 Capital Budget for Toronto Pan Am Sports Centre Inc.
