

PB18.4

Intention to Designate under Part IV, Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage Act - 41 and 47 Fraser Avenue and 135 Liberty Street (Ward 10)

PB18.4 41 and 47 Fraser Avenue and 135 Liberty Street

Location Map showing the subject properties boundary containing the former E. W. Gillett Co. Ltd. industrial complex located at the properties now known as 41 and 47 Fraser Avenue and 135 Liberty Street within the Liberty Village neighbourhood, south of King Street West and east of Dufferin Street

---

PB18.4
41 and 47 Fraser Avenue
and 135 Liberty Street

Photographs of the factory building at 135 Liberty Street and 53 Fraser Avenue showing the north and west facades with the adjacent office building (left), east and north facades (top, right) and east façade (bottom, right)

---

PB18.4
41 and 47 Fraser Avenue
and 135 Liberty Street

Garage/Storage Building, 41 Fraser Avenue (left and right)

PB18.4 41 and 47 Fraser Avenue and 135 Liberty Street

Postcard (left) showing the “New Plant” for the E. W. Gillett Company Ltd., c 1916-1922, Card (centre) announcing the amalgamation of the brands and featuring the plant building, Image (top right) of the first E. W. Gillett Co. Ltd. building, 1886, at 32-4 Front Street published in Toronto Illustrated, 1893, and photograph of E. W. Gillett at 41 Fraser Avenue, (bottom, right) by the Toronto Historical Board in 1995

PB18.4 41 and 47 Fraser Avenue and 135 Liberty Street

Liberty Village Context, showing a selection of the early 20th century industrial buildings at 29-37 Fraser Avenue (above), 58 Fraser Avenue (centre, bottom), 99 Atlantic (centre, top) 67 Mowat Avenue (right, top) and 60 Atlantic Avenue (right, bottom)

---

PB18.4
41 and 47 Fraser Avenue
and 135 Liberty Street

E. W. Gillett Co. Ltd complex, a Liberty Village landmark at the south-east corner of Fraser Avenue and Liberty Street

