

Manna Wong's response to Ronald Lin's Application for a Compliance Audit of her Municipal by-election campaign. This is to address question 13 which has buried in the complaint and not part of the first 12 questions at the beginning of the complaint.

13. The applicant has failed to identify what provision of the MEA the candidate may have contravened.

As stated earlier, the Campaign did not have a campaign office and the website cost was part of the invoice of PROGRESSIVE NATION which set up the website.
