

ATTACHMENT 1

Recommended Candidates and Biographies for the North Toronto Memorial Arena Board

Syl Apps

Syl lives in North Toronto and has been a coach for the North Toronto Hockey Association for several years. He is a real estate investment and development professional as Senior Managing Director for Hines in Canada. Prior to his real estate career, Syl played professional hockey and was named the Professional Hockey Players Association Man of the Year in 2003. Syl graduated with an AB in Economics from Princeton University and an MBA from Harvard Business School.

Alan Crawford

Alan grew up in North Toronto and graduated from St. Andrew's College in 1982 and McGill University in 1986. He captained the 1982 OFSA champion St. Andrew's College hockey team and participated in many other sports. Alan continued his hockey career at McGill University and in the French Professional Hockey League. He is currently president of the Morley Bedford Funeral Home and has served as a volunteer in many youth sports including hockey, lacrosse and baseball.