

PB20.3

Inclusion on the City of Toronto's Heritage Register- 22 Rose Park Drive (Ward 11)

PB20.3 22 Rose Park Drive

This location map is for information purposes only; the exact boundaries of the property are not shown. The arrow marks the location of the site

PB20.3 Rose Park Drive

Current photograph showing the principal (south) façade and east façade and garage

Current photograph showing the principal (south) façade and west façade

Rear (north) façade, with addition. (2020, real estate listing)

Detail of stone foundation

PB20.3 Rose Park Drive

Locke Family photograph, c. 1925. Joseph (2nd from left) son George (2nd from right) and daughter-in-law Grace (middle) circled

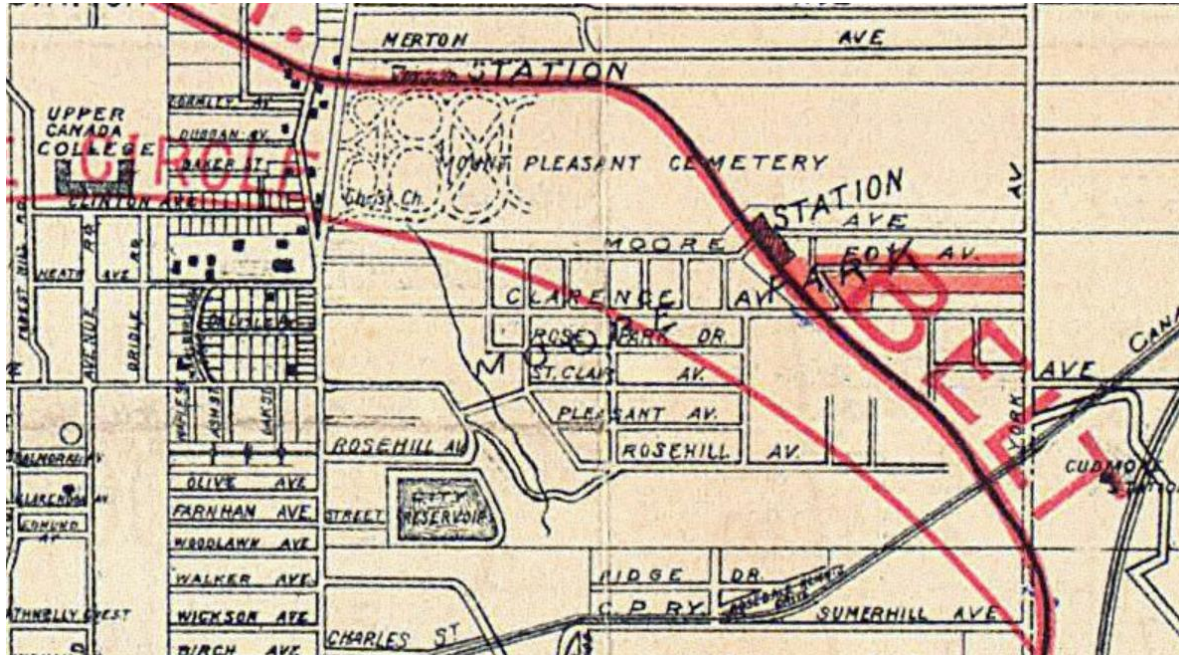

Broadway Methodist Tabernacle,
1905, Toronto Archives

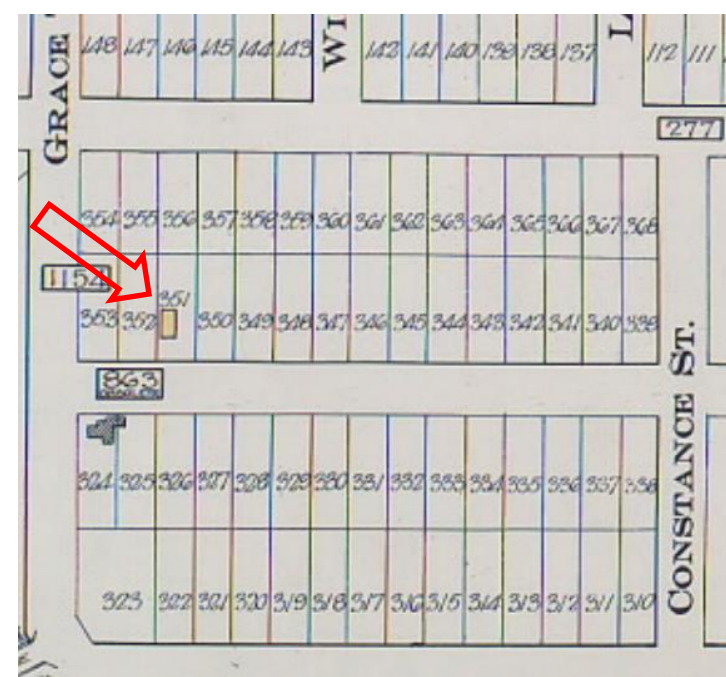

Yonge Street Methodist Church, 1911,
Toronto Public Library

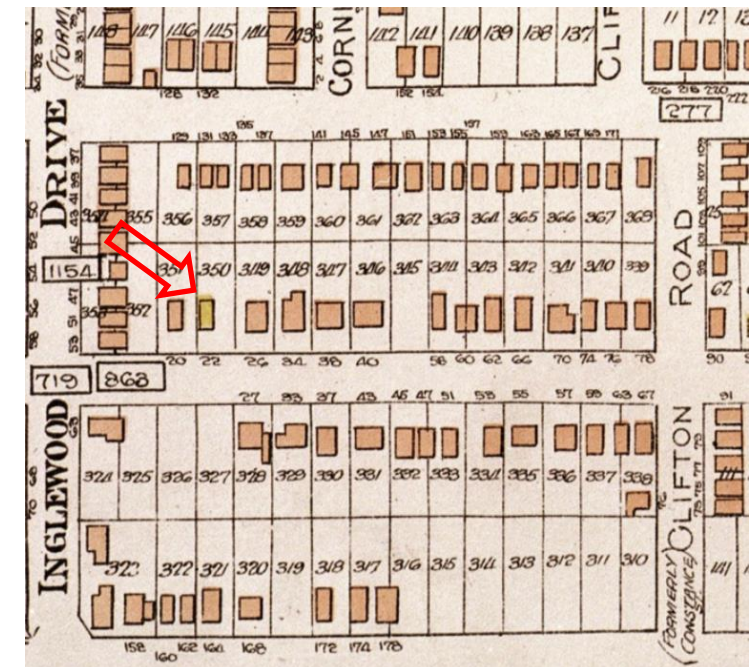

PB20.3 Rose Park Drive

Detail of Moore Park showing Rose Park Drive, Avoca Vale Bridge and the Station at Moore Ave, 1892. Map and Data Library, University of Toronto.

(left) Goads Fire Insurance Atlas, c. 1910, showing 22 Rose Park Drive

(right) Goads Fire Insurance Atlas, c. 1924, showing 22 Rose Park Drive and the surrounding blocks substantially built-out

PB20.3 Rose Park Drive

214 - 216 Glenrose Avenue

398 St Clair Avenue East

218 Glenrose Avenue

PB20.3 Rose Park Drive

Current photograph, showing the north side of Rose Park Drive looking east

Current photograph, showing the north side of Rose Park Drive looking west