

PB29.3

241 Richmond Street West and 133
John Street - Notice of Intention to Designate a Property under Part IV,
Section 29 of the Ontario Heritage
Act

PB29.3 241 Richmond & 133 John St

This location map is for information purposes only; the exact boundaries of the property are not shown. The arrow marks the location of the site.

PB29.3 241 Richmond & 133 John St

Left: 1893 Goad's Historical Map showing the five detached house-form buildings on the east side of John Street, including 133 John.

Above: 1935 archival photo showing the now-empty lot at the southwest corner of Richmond and John which would become the location of the current building known as 241 Richmond Street West; the Second Empire-style house-form building at 139 John Street is visible at right.

PB29.3 241 Richmond & 133 John St

Below, left and right: 1972 archival photo and current image of the property at 133 John Street

Canada's first non-alcohol draught
(less than 0.5% alc./vol.)

ALL NIGHT™ LAGER
fresh on tap... smart to drink
ALL NIGHT LONG
All Night™ lager — you'll love it.
Bring this ad and your first glass is on us!

OFFER ENDS: APRIL 9, 1992

Amsterdam & Rotterdam
133 John Street 600 King St. W.
955-8201 • BREWING BETTER BEER • 868-6882

Left: 1992 Toronto Star ad for Roel Bramer's brewpubs which would merge to become The Amsterdam Brewing Company.

PB29.3

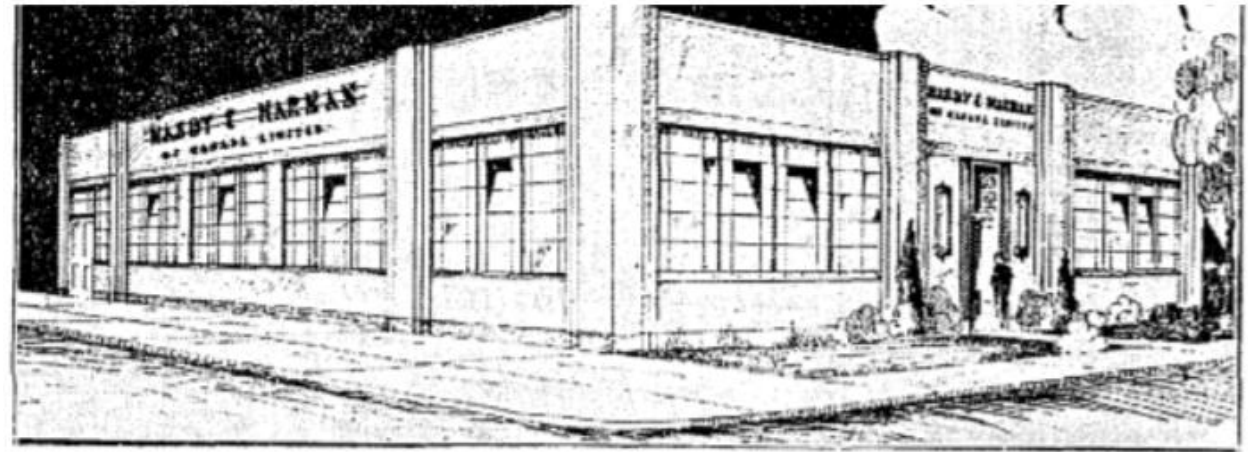

241 Richmond & 133 John St

Right: current photo of 241 Richmond Street West showing the original main entrance fronting John Street with its cast stone fluted door jamb detailing

Top right: 1935 ad for the new Handy and Harman of Canada Ltd building at 241 Richmond Street West

Bottom right: current photo of the building with its 1940 second storey addition, also by the renowned Toronto architectural firm, Page & Steele

NEW GOLD REFINERY FOR CITY

Designed by Forsey Page and John. The machinery will include plant for the melting, rolling and annealing of gold and silver. The parent concern in Bridgeport, U.S., is one of the largest of its kind in the world.

southeast corner of Richmond and Johns Sts. The industry, obtained through the Toronto industrial commission, is a new one for Toronto. The dimensions of the building are 71 feet on John St. by 101 on Rich-

PB29.3 241 Richmond & 133 John St

Above: Current contextual photo of the site looking northeast from John and Nelson Streets.

Right: Current photos of the adjacent 19th-century heritage buildings located at 118-122 John Street (top) and 109-129 John Street (bottom)

