The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Nancy Ellen Singer, a leading voice and champion for affordable housing in our City.

Nancy was born in Montreal in 1952 but moved to the City of Toronto in the 1970's. She worked diligently in the City's Planning Department and Housing Department during a vibrant and transitional period in Toronto, before launching a twenty year commitment to social housing where she served as an incredible advocate for the creation of affordable housing for all residents of our City. Nancy served as the Executive Director of the Kehilla Residential Program as well as the Director of Strategic Initiatives.

Nancy's indomitable spirit and tireless commitment to social and affordable housing transformed the lives of many people in our City.

Nancy will be very much missed by all who loved her including her son Jacob Fox, M'Beth Schoenfeld, and Eli Fox along with her former spouse Larry Fox. To the many people whose lives she touched, her dedication to others and advancing the cause of affordable housing will be long remembered.

The City Clerk is asked to convey, on behalf of Members of Toronto City Council, our thoughts, prayers and condolences to Nancy's family and all who loved her and cherished her wonderful and full life.
