SUMMARY

This supplementary report revises the timeframe for the Bloor-Yorkville Secondary Plan and anticipates a final report to City Council in late Q2 2022.

RECOMMENDATIONS

City Planning staff recommend that Toronto and East York Community Council receive this report for information.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

The City Planning Division confirms that there are no financial implications resulting from the recommendations included in this report in the current budget year or in future years.

COMMENTS

In the Report dated April 30, 2021, from the Director, Community Planning, Toronto and East York District, staff advised on the timeframe respecting the Bloor-Yorkville Secondary Plan study.

The purpose of this supplementary report is to advise that staff will now be targeting a draft Secondary Plan in early Q1 2022 and a Final Report on the Secondary Plan in late Q2 2022.

In addition, the Cultural Heritage Resource Assessment will be timed to align with the draft Secondary Plan in Q1 2022. Staff will continue to work closely together with the community through the study process.
