COMMENTS

Composition of TO Live

The Board of Directors of TO Live consists of 13 members and is composed of:

- the Mayor or a Council member appointed by the Mayor as the Mayor's designate
- 2 Council members
- 10 public members

There are currently two positions under consideration

One position is due to the resignation of Gabriel Michaan effective March 1, 2022. The other position is due to the resignation of the chair, Robert Foster, effective June 1, 2022.

Public members must meet certain qualifications and be eligible

Public members of the Board should collectively have significant experience in one or more of the following qualifications:

- current or past leadership role in the performing arts sector or another cultural sector
- community leadership and partnerships
- marketing and sponsorship

- financial management and business strategy
- labour relations

In addition, a youthful perspective, defined as an individual in the 18-30 age range, is a desirable qualification for at least one public member.

There are specific eligibility requirements to serve on TO Live

In addition to the general eligibility requirements in the Public Appointments Policy, public members are ineligible for appointment, if any of the following conditions apply to them or their immediate family members if:

- the person is a supplier of goods or services to the City's theatre facilities
- the person has an employment relationship with another performing arts theatre
- the person has an employment, directorship, ownership or controllership interest in an organization that has an interest in performing or producing live performing arts at the City's theatre facilities

Public members serve a four year term

The term of office on the TO Live Board is four years.

City Council directed the City Clerk to recruit and recommend candidates to the Civic Appointments Committee

City Clerk's staff consulted with Economic Development and Culture staff, the Chair of the TO Live Board of Directors, and the CEO of TO Live. In addition to the Council-approved board qualifications and a commitment to TO Live's vision, mission, values and services, it was suggested that experience in such areas as finance, governance, fundraising, technology and diversity and inclusion would be an asset to the board.

Staff are recommending two highly qualified candidates for appointment

Economic Development & Culture and City Clerk's Office staff are recommending two highly qualified candidates for appointment to the TO Live Board of Directors. These candidates cover a range of qualifications with the relevant knowledge and experiences.

Public release of names of recommended candidates

The names of the recommended candidates will be publicly reported once the Civic Appointments Committee forwards its recommendation to City Council.
