COMMENTS

25 Applications have been received

The City Clerk's Office has sought applications from interested and qualified persons to fill this vacant office. The City issued a media release about the appointment and Information about the appointment opportunity was communicated using social media and the City's website. An information session was held by video conference on June 14, 2022 where persons could learn more about the appointment process. The deadline to file the required forms was Monday, June 20, 2022 at 4:30 p.m. By the deadline, the City Clerk had received 25 applications.

The City Clerk has reviewed the documents and is satisfied that the applicants are qualified to hold office. Applicants have also been given the opportunity to submit supplementary documentation in support of their candidacy for appointment.

City Council has approved a process for this appointment

1. Each candidate shall be provided the opportunity to address City Council for up to 5 minutes;
2. The order in which candidates address City Council shall be determined by random draw conducted by the City Clerk when City Council begins its debate on the item;
3. Members of City Council shall be entitled to ask one question of each candidate;
4. City Council shall vote on the appointment by ballot in accordance with the process established by the City Clerk; and
5. City Council shall enact a by-law at the end of the special meeting confirming the appointment of the successful candidate to the office for the remainder of the term of the present Council.

Council will use the same balloting process used for other appointments

Council Meetings are being conducted in a hybrid format. Members of Council, staff, candidates and the public can participate in person or remotely.

Council will use the same balloting process established by the City Clerk for the Ward 10 and Ward 13 appointments. The balloting process is based on Council's Procedures and accommodates Member attendance in person and by video conference. The balloting process is outlined in Attachment 2.

Next steps

The appointee will assume office once City Council enacts a by-law confirming the appointment at the end of the special meeting and the City Clerk administers the Declaration of Office. The new Councillor will hold office until the end of the term on November 14, 2022.

Attachment 2

Hybrid Balloting Procedures Established by the City Clerk based on the Rules of Procedure in Appendix A-II to Municipal Code Chapter 27, Council Procedures, as applicable.

1. All Members must remain in their location during voting.

Once balloting begins, Members remain silent and seated and/or connected to the video conference.

2. Members attending in person will vote by paper ballot.

The Clerk issues paper ballots to Members attending the meeting in person.

Members vote for one candidate only.

Members mark the candidate of their choice, sign the ballot and print their name on the ballot.

3. Members attending by video conference will vote in a virtual breakout room.

Members present in the meeting by video conference will be placed in a breakout room, one at a time, in alphabetical order.

The City Clerk will ask the Member to consent to the City Clerk casting the Member's vote by proxy.

Members vote for one candidate only.

The City Clerk will display the candidate list on the screen within the breakout room. The Member will instruct the City Clerk to mark their paper ballot on the Member's behalf. The Deputy City Clerk will be present to witness the marking of the ballot.

The City Clerk will confirm the vote with the Member, print the Member's name on the ballot and sign the ballot. The Deputy City Clerk will initial the ballot.

Once the remote Member has cast their ballot, they will be returned to the main video conference meeting.

4. Balloting results public.

All ballot results are public.

5. Announcing ballot results and members' votes.

The Clerk announces the results of the ballot, and announces the individual ballot results and the name of the member casting the ballot.

6. When most votes do not make a majority.

If the nominee with the most votes does not receive the votes of a majority of the members present, Council conducts another ballot.

7. Nominees excluded from the next ballot.

The next ballot excludes the nominees with the fewest votes and any nominee with no votes.

8. Votes to find a candidate with the most votes and then a majority vote.

Balloting continues until one nominee receives both the most votes and a majority of votes.

9. Steps for when remaining nominees are tied.

If only two nominees remain and the votes for the two remaining nominees are tied, the Clerk selects the winner by the following method:

- A. The names of each of the two remaining nominees are placed on two sheets of paper of equal size, and the papers are folded in half and placed in a box; and
- B. The Clerk pulls the name of one nominee from the box, and that nominee is declared the winner.
