COMMENTS

The Metro Toronto Convention Centre is an external corporation

The Metropolitan Toronto Convention Centre Corporation (MTCC) is a government business enterprise of the provincial Ministry of Tourism, Culture and Sport. It is incorporated as a corporation without share capital pursuant to the Metropolitan Toronto Convention Centre Corporation Act. The Corporation is also a Crown agency under this same Act.

Composition of MTCC Board

The board consists of not fewer than 7 and not more than 13 members:

- not more than 10 shall be appointed by the Lieutenant Governor in Council
- not more than 3 shall be appointed by the Council of the City of Toronto

Currently, the City's 3 members on the board include:

- 2 Toronto residents
- the President and Chief Executive Officer of Tourism Toronto

Under the Metropolitan Toronto Convention Centre Corporation Act, the Lieutenant Governor in Council shall designate one of the directors as chair of the board.

The City of Toronto has three public member positions on the board

The City of Toronto's two public member positions on the MTCC Board are under consideration in this process, in addition to the position held by the President and CEO of Tourism Toronto.

Public members should meet certain qualifications

In addition to the general eligibility requirements set out in the Public Appointments Policy, members should possess:

- interest in and a broad knowledge of the hospitality industry
- sound management background in finance, marketing, entertainment, food service, facilities operation or communications
- ability to devote time required for board meetings and for pre-meeting study and review of agenda and supporting material

Public members will serve three-year terms of office

The term of office for the public members appointed by City Council is three years. Members continue to serve until their successors are appointed.

Public appointments staff have consulted with the Convention Centre

In preparation for this process, Public Appointments staff consulted with the Chair of the MTCC Board and the President and CEO in the winter of 2022 to discuss the public appointments process as well as current and future strategic directions of the Convention Centre.

Public members receive remuneration

Any member of the public who is chair of the board shall receive remuneration of $200 per meeting. Other public members shall receive remuneration of $125 per meeting.

Public release of names of recommended candidates

The name of the recommended candidates for the Metro Toronto Convention Centre Board will be publicly reported once the Nominating Panel - Corporations forwards its recommendations to City Council.
