COMMENTS

Composition of the Toronto Local Appeal Body

The board consists of 14 public members, including a Chair and Vice Chair.

There are currently four positions under consideration

At its meeting held April 6, 2022, City Council increased the size of the Toronto Local Appeal Body from ten members to fourteen members, including the Chair and Vice-Chair. As a result of this decision there are four new positions to be filled.

Term of office

The term of office for public members is four years.

Under the Statutory Powers Procedure Act, members are also required to continue beyond their term of office or resignation date to complete hearing any matters of which they are seized, and members may continue beyond their term of office until such time as sufficient numbers of incoming new members have completed any mandatory orientation and training.

Public members should meet certain qualifications

Members should collectively bring the following skills and expertise to the committee:

- Experience in adjudication and mediation;
- Knowledge and experience with land use planning and planning law;

- Excellent listening skills and ability to analyze complex evidence;
- Sound judgement, tact, fairness and decorum;
- Ability to write clearly and concisely;
- Demonstrated high ethical standards and integrity;
- Ability to work under pressure to ensure timely hearing decisions; and
- Respect for access to justice, diversity and accommodation.

Members must satisfy certain eligibility requirements

In addition to the general eligibility requirements set out in the Public Appointments Policy, members of the Toronto Local Appeal body must meet these criteria:

- Cannot be a member of Toronto's Committee of Adjustment, a land division committee, or planning advisory committee member;
- Former Members of Council who served in the immediately preceding term of Council are ineligible for appointment; and
- Members cannot act as agents for applicants before the Committee of Adjustment, Toronto Local Appeal Body and other City administrative tribunals and would be required to resign from the TLAB before doing so.

Members receive remuneration

Members of the Toronto Local Appeal Body receive:

- $600 per diem for full day hearings or mediation, business meetings and training sessions
- $400 for a half day hearings or mediation, business meetings and training sessions (less than 3.5 hours)
- $200 for a written decision

In addition to receiving per diem, the Chair shall receive an annual stipend of $60,000, the Vice Chair shall receive an annual stipend of $15,000 and public members shall receive an annual stipend of $1,500.

Public Appointments staff have consulted with Court Services

In preparation for this process, Public Appointments staff consulted with Court Services to discuss current board needs, emerging trends, and the appointments process.

Public release of names of the recommended candidates

The names and biographies of the recommended candidates will be publicly reported once the Nominating Panel - Toronto Local Appeal Body forwards its recommendation to City Council.
