COMMENTS

Composition of the Property Standards Committee

The committee is composed of 16 citizen members organized into four panels corresponding to the Community Council boundaries.

There is currently one position under consideration

The vacancy is due to the resignation of Laura Herbert effective July 1, 2022.

Term of office

The candidate appointed to fill this vacancy will complete the term previously held by the member who resigned and serve a term of office ending May 5, 2025, continuing to serve until a successor is appointed.

Public members should meet certain qualifications

Members should collectively bring the following skills and expertise to the Committee:

- bring an understanding of the diverse neighbourhoods and communities across the city
- have a concern for the health and safety of City residents
- have an understanding of the Building Code Act, Municipal Code Chapter 629, Property Standards; building practices and tribunal processes
- have a clear understanding of the role of the committee
- not act as an agent for any appellant before the Property Standards Committee
- if possible, have previous experience as a member of a decision-making body
- be able to read and understand building plans, surveys and reports

Former Council members who served in the immediately preceding term of Council are ineligible for appointment as public members.

Members receive remuneration

All public members receive a full-day per diem of $460 and half-day per diem (3.5 hours or less) of $275 for hearings, business meetings and training sessions.

Each public member who is not the city-wide or a panel Chair will receive a stipend of $1,500 per year, pro-rated on an annual basis from the time of appointment. The city-wide and Panel Chairs will receive an annual stipend of $2,500, pro-rated on an annual basis from the time of appointment.

Public release of name of the recommended candidate

The name and biography of the recommended candidate will be publicly reported once the Nominating Panel - Property Standards forwards its recommendation to City Council.
