To whom it may concern,

It has come to our attention that the amplified music on patios pilot is up for review. As part of the revitalization of the city, creating enjoyable outdoor spaces continues to be important. As restrictions ease, many may still prefer outdoor entertainment to indoors. This is a win-win situation for restaurants. Being able to enjoy music while dining outdoors adds to the vibrance of our main streets. We fully support the continuation of this initiative.

Sincerely,

Clorraine Dennie, Coordinator
