

Expression of Condolence for
Dr. Paul Hannam by Toronto City Council

Moved by: Councillor James Pasternak

Seconded by: Councillor Mike Colle

The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Dr. Paul Hannam on Sunday, July 17, 2022.

Dr. Hannam served as the Chief of Emergency Medicine and Program Medical Director at the North York General Hospital. Prior to this role, Dr. Hannam was the Chief Emergency Director at Michael Garron Hospital where he served the city's east end for over 10 years. Since 2006, Dr. Hannam held various roles in medical leadership and hospital administration. Dr. Hannam was also known for his athleticism, competing in the 1996 Summer Olympic games in Atlanta where he represented Team Canada in Sailing.

Dr. Hannam's impact within Canadian medicine and sports cannot be understated and we join all who knew him as they mourn this immense loss.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to family and friends of Dr. Paul Hannam.
