The Mayor and Members of Toronto City Council are deeply saddened to learn of the passing of Karen O'Brien on July 7, 2022.

A long time resident of Beaches-East York and owner of Courage Foods over on Kingston Road, Karen is remembered as a staple of the community and will be missed greatly by neighbours. As a small business owner Karen played an active role within the community and brought positivity to all those who visited her shop. Her kind smile and warm heart will be greatly missed.

The City Clerk is requested to convey, on behalf of the Members of Toronto City Council, our sincere sympathy to Karen's family.
