COMMENTS

Composition of the Toronto Local Appeal Body

The board consists of 10 public members, including a Chair and Vice Chair.

There are currently two positions under consideration

There are currently two vacancies on the Toronto Local Appeal Body:

- one position was held by Justin Leung who resigned effective November 26, 2021, and
- one position was held by Shaheynoor Talukder who resigned effective December 31, 2021.

Under the Statutory Powers Procedure Act, members are also required to continue beyond their term of office or resignation date to complete hearing any matters of which they are seized, and members may continue beyond their term of office until such time as sufficient numbers of incoming new members have completed any mandatory orientation and training.

Term of office

The term of office for public members is four years.

Public members should meet certain qualifications

Members should collectively bring the following skills and expertise to the committee:

- Experience in adjudication and mediation;
- Knowledge and experience with land use planning and planning law;

- Excellent listening skills and ability to analyze complex evidence;
- Sound judgement, tact, fairness and decorum;
- Ability to write clearly and concisely;
- Demonstrated high ethical standards and integrity;
- Ability to work under pressure to ensure timely hearing decisions; and
- Respect for access to justice, diversity and accommodation.

Members must satisfy certain eligibility requirements

In addition to the general eligibility requirements set out in the Public Appointments Policy, members of the Toronto Local Appeal body must meet these criteria:

- Cannot be a member of Toronto's Committee of Adjustment, a land division committee, or planning advisory committee member;
- Former Members of Council who served in the immediately preceding term of Council are ineligible for appointment; and
- Members cannot act as agents for applicants before the Committee of Adjustment, Toronto Local Appeal Body and other City administrative tribunals and would be required to resign from the TLAB before doing so.

Members receive remuneration

Members of the Toronto Local Appeal Body receive:

- $600 per diem for full day hearings or mediation, business meetings and training sessions
- $400 for a half day hearings or mediation, business meetings and training sessions (less than 3.5 hours)
- $200 for a written decision

In addition to receiving per diem, the Chair shall receive an annual stipend of $60,000, the Vice Chair shall receive an annual stipend of $15,000 and public members shall receive an annual stipend of $1,500.

Public Appointments staff have consulted with Court Services

In preparation for this process, Public Appointments staff consulted with Court Services to discuss current board needs, emerging trends, and the appointments process.

Outreach was conducted for this vacancy

Targeted outreach to attract skilled and diverse candidates included social media including LinkedIn and Twitter, contacting professional associations and communication via the Public appointments e-updates list.

Next steps - Interviews

Once the Nominating Panel - Toronto Local Appeal Body has selected candidates for interviews, the City Clerk's Office will contact the candidates to schedule them for 20 minute interviews. Eight interviews plus deliberations will take approximately 4 hours to complete.
