Date: August 29, 2023

To: City Council

From: City Manager

Wards: All

SUMMARY

The purpose of this report is to recommend to City Council the appointment of an Interim Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services.

This is an urgent matter as the current Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services, Josie Scioli, will retire from the City of Toronto effective October 6, 2023 and interim appointments must be in place before the next Council meeting, currently scheduled for October 11, 12 and 13, 2023.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The City Manager recommends that:

1. City Council appoint David Jollimore as the Interim Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services for the City of Toronto, for a period effective October 6, 2023 until November 5, 2023, and appoint Patrick Matozzo as the Interim Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services for the City of Toronto, for a period effective November 6, 2023 until December 3, 2023.

FINANCIAL IMPACT

There are no financial implications beyond what has already been submitted in the 2023 operating budget.

The Interim Chief Financial Officer & Treasurer has reviewed this report and agrees with the information as presented in the Financial Impact Section.

DECISION HISTORY

The current Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services, Josie Scioli, is planning to retire from the City of Toronto effective October 6, 2023.

This report seeks Council authority to appoint an Interim Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services to ensure continuity in the position prior to the appointment and effective start date of the next Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services.

COMMENTS

The current Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services, Josie Scioli, announced her retirement from the City of Toronto effective October 6, 2023.

This report seeks City Council authority to appoint David Jollimore, currently General Manager, Fleet Services, and Patrick Matozzo, currently Executive Director, Corporate Real Estate Management, to serve as the Interim Deputy City Manager, Corporate Services for a period of October 6 until November 5, 2023 and November 6 until December 3, 2023 respectively.
