

ATTACHMENT 1

Recommended Candidates and Biographies for the George Bell Arena Board

Andrew Burnell

Andrew Burnell, CPA, CMA received his Honours Bachelor of Commerce from McMaster University and a MBA from the Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto. Currently, he is Director, Planning & Analysis at Corus Entertainment, where he is responsible for the budgeting, forecasting, and strategic planning.

Michael Casey

Michael is Senior Vice President and General counsel at one of Canada's largest construction and infrastructure companies (EllisDon) and manages the Legal Services department. Michael sits or has sat on a number of boards including acting as board member for BALANCE for Blind Adults, Construction Sector In-House Counsel Forum, and CanBIM. Michael is an active member of the hockey community as a volunteer coach and parent of 2 young children who play competitive hockey.

Tanya Connors

Tanya Connors is a social worker by training specialized in delivering mental health services. She has worked in hospitals, community settings and crisis response. She is passionate about learning and creating strong communities. As a resident of Rockcliffe-Smythe, Tanya takes pride in her neighborhood, and has invested her time helping secure funding for park improvements, and organizing community events.

Wendell Noel

Performance-driven project coordinator with broad-based experience coordinating and overseeing various projects to exceed quality, timeline, and budget expectations. Adept at achieving key project milestones while successfully organizing project deliverables in compliance with company's policies. Well-versed in accomplishing set objectives with hands-on experience in demonstrating project stipulations to the core team by analyzing and identifying requirements.

Charlene Patfield

My name is Charlene Patfield. When I was a hockey player growing up I was surrounded by a strong group of Women who had created a League to provide girls an opportunity to play the sport of hockey. This was a hugely inspirational experience for me and helped shaped who I am today. I continue to use those earlier influences to continue to advocate for equity and sportsmanship among all players.