

ATTACHMENT 1

Recommended Candidates and Biographies for the Larry Grossman Forest Hill Memorial Arena Board

Ray Abramson

As someone who has grown up playing hockey in Toronto and now currently lives near Larry Grossman Arena, I know just how important the facility is to the community. My past leadership experiences in sports mixed with my current companies in MeazureUp and LUG Sports have given me the hands-on knowledge of how to manage both facilities and people, two things that are paramount in this role.

Gary Cilevitz

Gary Cilevitz is the stakeholder representative for the Forest Hill Hockey Association on the Larry Grossman Forest Hill Memorial Arena Board.

Neil Greenbaum

Fintech sales and service executive with over 30 years of experience in the wealth and asset management industries. Demonstrates a proven track record as a catalyst in the successful development of individuals, teams and organizations. A hands-on, well organized business builder who embraces teamwork, creativity and process development with commitment and passion.

Jaimie Grossman

Jaimie was co-founder and Chief Executive Officer of UPTREND media which was sold to Yellow Pages Group in 2010. He co-founded Jiffy on Demand and was CEO until 2018. He now serves as Chairman. Jaimie holds an MBA from the Schulich School of Business, and a certificate in American Foreign Policy from American University in Washington, D.C. He sits on a number of boards and has served on the boards of Mount Sinai's Leadership Sinai, Kensington Health and Foundation. He is currently the Chairman of Larry Grossman Forest Hill Memorial Arena Board.

Adam Nathanson

Adam is the Manager of Business Affairs at Apple, leading this department for all of Canada. Before Apple, Adam worked as in-house counsel for Canada's largest independent music company and practiced litigation at a Toronto firm. He graduated first in his class at Western University and won numerous prizes during law school. Adam currently serves Toronto as a Board member of the Larry Grossman Forest Hill Memorial Arena.